Two killed in incidents

By DMCH Correspondent

A youngman was killed and five others injured when an auto-rickshaw and a truck collided head on near Rajendrapur Bridge in Keraniganj Thursday morning.

The injured were admitted to the DMCH where Abdul Mamun, 20, driver of the auto rickshaw, succumbed to injuries at about 9:30 am, medical sources said.

UNB adds: A painter was killed when he fell from a seven-storied building at Mahakhali area in the city yesterday morning.

The victim Shanu Mia, 30, slipped from the ladder at about 7:30 am while he was painting the newly constructed building.

Participation of women in politics stressed

By DU Correspondent

Participants in a workshop yesterday emphasised on female education, gender training, participation of women in politics, exposure of women in media, raising awareness about women's rights, legal aid training, child education for implementing the Beijing Platform of Action '95.

The day-long national workshop on the implementation of the Beijing Platform for Action organised by the Bangladesh National Preparatory Committee towards Beijing NGO Forum '95 was held at the BMDC auditorium.

The workshop participated by different NGO representatives, donor organisations, representatives of the United Nations, government representatives and different social and cultural organisations pointed out some way to the implementations of the Platform for Action '95. After the inaugural session a panel discussion and a group discussion was held and in the last session the recommendations of the participants was presented by Rawshan Ara which was chaired by Nazma Chowdhury.

The participants also said, the relation between the government and Non-Government Organisations should be amicable and complementary. For this reason, they said, special dialogue between the NGO and GO should be arranged and the participation of NGO representatives in the task force for the purpose should be increased.

The recommendations came from different participation organisations to be published in a report within a few days, the organisers of the workshop said.
