Theft in city hotel
By Staff Correspondent
A US resident boarding in a hotel at Shantinagar lost his video camera and some important papers from his room within hours of renting.
Dr Dibakar Barua became the victim of the theft on January 17. Barua came to visit Bangladesh after a gap of ten years.
According to him, after checking in at the hotel at around 3:30 pm he went to have tea in the hotel's restaurant. On return the articles were gone.
The hotel owner requested not to report the incident to the police and assured him of recovery of his stolen articles. No outsiders have access to the hotel rooms, Barua said, quoting the hotel owner.
When contacted the Motijheel thana said that a general diary (GD) has been filed.
