Dark Justice on BTV, Tonight at 9:00

Highlights

They discover that Fitzsimmons works for a woman named Rita who runs the auto-repossession yard. The yard is actually the headquarters of her drug-trafficking business. Once a vehicle is impounded on her lot, drugs are placed in the trunk and Fitzsimmons drives the car to another state, delivering the contraband to various buyers.

Gibs uses his special-effects wizardry to rig a car scheduled for delivery by Fitzsimmons. Once inside the vehicle, Fitzsimmons is trapped with the incriminating evidence in the trunk, and the car is driven for him, by remote control, directly to the police.

Jolo is cleared of the charges. He is able to retrieve his car and resume his studies.

Dark Justice
Jericho 'Gibs' Gibson's young cousin, John Joseph 'Jolo' Johnson is an excellent college student, who has recently had money problems. His car is repossessed with his schoolbooks inside. When Jolo goes to the auto-repossession yard to get his books he is surprised to find his car outside the security gates. As he drives away, a motorist named Fitzsimmons shoots at Jolo. The police arrive, discover five kilos of cocaine in Jolo's trunk and arrest him.

Jolo swears to Gibs that the drugs were placed in the car without his knowledge. Judge Nicholas 'Nick' Marshall, Arnold 'Moon' Willis and Kelly Coham agree to help Gibs prove Jolo's innocence.
