Manhandling of Press Club employees slated

The Jatiya Press Club Karmachari Kalyan Parishad in a press release yesterday alleged that its joint secretary Abul Kashem and member Abul Khair were manhandled while on duty at the Press Club main gate by Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) activists during yesterday's hartal, reports BSS.

It said two meetings, one by the Awami League and another by the Jatiya Chhatra Samaj were being held at the road in front of the Jatiya Press Club at around 12.30 pm. At one stage, the workers of the Jatiya Chhatra Samaj attacked as private car and were obstructed by the police on duty there. As a consequence the Awami League leaders wanted to forcibly enter the club premise through the closed main gate.

Club employees Abul Kashem and Abul Khair who were on duty at the time refused their entry for security reasons. In reply, some BCL workers became unruly.

The club Employees Kalyan Parishad strongly condemned the incident. Meanwhile, the managing committee of the Jatiya Press Club sought cooperation of all in maintaining the sanctity of the club.

The committee reminded all that the club is a neutral organisation and it was the responsibility of everybody to stop recurrence of such incidents in future.
