'1996 should be a year of economic revival for Japan'

DAVOS. Switzerland, Feb 4: Bank of Tokyo Chairman Toyoo Gyohten said yesterday 1996 should be a year of economic revival for Japan, reports Reuter.

"We can hope for more than two per cent economic growth this year and this could lead to even higher growth in the years to come.' he added at a meeting at the world economic forum.

Gyoten, a former Japanese Vice Minister of Finance for International Affairs, also said his country's current account surplus had been declining because of the yen's rapid appreciation in recent years and should be equivalent to less than two per cent of gross national product this

On the Japanese economic outlook, he said: "The year 1996 should be the year of revival. There are two major jobs ahead of us. One is how to solidify the recovery ...

"The other is to make substantial progress in clearing up the substantial financial mess that happened with us some years ago.

Gyoten said recent production, consumption and other indicators had moved favourably and augured well for economic prospects.

He said the yen's current level in exchange markets. following its recent decline. was "not uncomfortable for many Japanese businesses.",

Iraqi diplomat due in UN today for food for oil talks

senior Iraqi diplomat left Saturday for France en route to the United Nations to discuss arrangements for a limited sale of Iraqi oil to finance food purchases for the embargoed nation, says AP.

Abdul-Amir Anbari, Iraq's Paris-based representative to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, will arrive in New York on Monday after a layover in Paris, said an official at the Iraqi Embassy in Seven other officials will accompany Anbari to the talks, which open Tuesday at the UN headquarters in New York, said the embassy source, who requested

AMMAN. Jordan, Feb 4: A in Amman late Friday "after three days of consultation with the Iraqi leadership" in Baghdad. Anbari, a career diplomat, participated in talks with the United Nations that ended the Gulf War in February 1991 after the eviction of Iraqi troops from Kuwait.

His delegation comprises experts from the ministries of oil, trade, industry, foreign affairs, health and the Central Bank of Iraq, said the embassy officials.

Jordan is the main gateway for Iraq, whose airports remain closed under UN sanctions imposed in August 1990 to punish Baghdad of invading Kuwait.

The sanctions have deprived Baghdad of oil revenue, its economic mainstay.

and left many of the country's 20 million population languishing in poverty.

On humanitarian grounds, the UN Security Council last year offered to allow Iraq to pump dirs 2 billion worth of oil over six months.

Under the plan, some of the money would go to the United Nations to finance post-war operations in Iraq. and some toward war reparations that Iraq has been ordered to pay.

The Iraqi government would use the rest to buy food and medicine under UN supervision.

Iraq had repeatedly rejected the offer, saying its infringed on its sovereignty. But amid increasing hardship, it agreed last month to discuss the offer.

A group of Russian coal-miners gets ready to go back to work in the Rodmoskovkaya mine, 200 km south of Moscow, after the mines' union accepted the offers from the government on Saturday following three days of strike. The miners will get some 300 million dollars in back wages according to official figures. The union vowed to continue the strike from the first of May if they will not meet their demands for back wages and subsidies. - AFP/UNB photo

Sugar refineries in Guangdong may face closure

HONG KONG, Feb 4: Most sugar refineries in southern China's Guangdong province could face closure due to rampant sugar smuggling that is forcing down the commodity's price, a report said yesterday, according to AFP.

At least 32 these refineries were shut down temporarily last month in Zhanginag city. Guangdong province. China's major sugar production centre, because of dwindling profits from fallen sugar prices, the Hong Kong branch of China News Service

Authorities blamed smuggling, rampant in southern coastal China, as the main reason for less expensive sugar, which currently sells for 4.095 yuan (493 US dollars) per tone, down from 4,350 yuan last November. the report said.

They also blamed foreign investors who claimed they were importing sugar to process for export, but were instead selling it within their countries illegally.

The losses to these refineries were estimated at more than 300 million yuan.
