Arrest of Ittefaq editor condemned

Bangladesh Council of Editors condemned the arrest of the Editor of Dally Ittefaq, Anwar Hossain Monju, and demanded his immediate and unconditional release. reports UNB.

In a statement yesterday, president and secretary general of the council Chowdhury Mohammad Faruque and Moazzem Hossain said the BCE was deeply concerned over the arrest of Ittefaq Editor, who is a member of its executive committee.

The council of editors believes that whatever may be his individual political identity, Anwar Hossain Monju is first and foremost the editor of an esteemed daily, the statement said.

Under the existing laws of the country, the BCE leaders noted, he (Monju) must have been discharging his responsibility as editor of the daily with the approval of concerned authorities of the government.

"So there is no scope for any denial of his editorial responsibility, even if he is regarded as a political personality."

The statement further said if the editorial responsibility of Anwar Hossain Monju was ignored, then it would tantamount to showing disrespect to the editorial institution.

Shahjahan Siraj visits Ctg port

Cargo handling in Chittagong maritime port was normal yesterday despite Opposition's non-cooperation programme, said an official handout, reports UNB.

It said loading and unloading of goods in some ships anchored at different jetties of the port was done normally. Some ships arrived at the port while some others left it as usual.

State Minister for Shipping Shahjahan Siraj visited overall activities of the port and expressed satisfaction over the normal operation.

He asked the absentee officials and workers of the port to immediately join their duties. Otherwise, he warned, legal action would be taken against them.

Later, the minister had a meeting with the port officials at its board room. The meeting hoped that cargo handling in Chittagong will further be improved from today.

The minister directed the officials, employees and workers of the port to work untidely to continue its activities.
