AL wants to chain the nation: JCD

A big procession of the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD). yesterday, paraded the city streets, calling on the people to foil the conspiracies. hatched by the 'unholy alliance' of the Awami League, Jatiya Party and Jamaat against democratic and constitutional process in the country, reports

Speakers at the starting point of the procession at Farmgate said that political problems could not be solved keeping the people hostage through hartals, barricades, violence, anarchy and so-called non-cooperation.

They called upon the opposition parties to shun the path of destruction and violence and come to the negotiating table to resolve the political problem. They said that the Awami

League wanted to usurp power in the name of caretaker government and chain the nation again. But, they said, the democracy loving patriotic people of the country would foil the Opposition's evil de-The procession paraded through Panthapath, Banglamotor, Sheraton, Shahbagh, Uni versity Doel Crossing, Shishu Academy, Foreign Office, Tejgaon industrial area and ended at Farmgate. The student leaders expressed the hope that good sense would prevail upon the opposition parties and that they would positively respond to the call of Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia to sit across the negotiating table.

They said the February 15 parliamentary polls have ereated an opportunity for solving the political problem in a constitutional way.

Opportunity has to be exploited by way of holding elections with participation of all political parties in future, they
