Newspapermen threaten greater movement

A joint meeting of the Central Coordination Committee and the Sangram Committee comprising the three federations of the newspaper indus-try and the Dhaka Union of Journalists was held here yesterday at the Jatiya Press Club with the convenor of the coordination committee Fazley Imam in the chair, reports

BSS. A BFUJ press release said. the meeting discussed the issue of dearness allowance for the journalists and employees and different other aspects in the newspaper industry. The meeting expressed deep concern at the government's delay in announcing the dearness allowance.

The meeting observed that the Information Ministry had taken recourse to unnecessary excuses in forming the 5th Wage Board and was now adopting the same dilly-dallying in announcing the dear-hess allowance. The meeting warned that if the dearness allowance was not announced immediately the journalists, employees and press workers of the newspaper industry would be compelled to announce programme for greater movement, the ess release said.

The meeting was, attended by joint conveners of the committee and BFUJ president Amanullah Kabir and Jahangir Kabir, member secretary of the committee and DUJ secretary Ruhul Amin Gazi, secretary general of Bangla-desh Sangbadpatra Press Sra-mik Federation Bazlur Rahman
