FDC employee murder: 3 held after 6 years

By Staff Correspondent

Police have arrested three persons on charge of killing an employee of the Film Development Corporation (FDC) in the city after about six years.

HB Chowdhury alias Kiron had been hanged to death allegedly by three persons on the top floor of Johura Market at Bangla Motor crossing at around 10pm on September 8, 1989, police said.

Kiron's younger brother, an engineer of the PWD, Dhaka, filed a murder case with Ramna thana on September 12, 1989.

The killing was a sequel to a conflict between Kiron and another person, official of the FDC, police investigation revealed.

Two of the arrested persons identified as Nizamuddin alias Nirob alias Kamal and Babul gave confessional statement under Section 164 in this regard.

The other accused was identified as Bodul Alam alias Abu, Police said.

Manzur Murder Case: Hearing adjourned till April 6

The hearing of the Manzur Murder Case was adjourned Wednesday till April 6, reports BSS.

When the matter was taken up yesterday in the court of the additional district sessions judge, Akhlaque Rahman, in the old court building in the old town, defence lawyers representing Hussain Mohammad Ershad, principal accused in the case, and others submitted petitions seeking adjournment of the hearing on the ground of not being able to meet their clients ahead of yesterday's proceedings.

The prosecution did not object to defence plea, rather stated that the lawyers representing the accused be given chance to meet their clients in jail as per directive of the Supreme Court.

The judge directed the jail authority to ensure that the defence lawyers are able to meet their clients before the next date.

Bomb attack on house of Dhaka div commissioner

Bombs were hurled at the residence of Divisional Commissioner of Dhaka Nuruz-zaman Mia early Wednesday, police said. They said two men riding a motor cycle exploded two bombs in his Mintoo road residence at about 12:15 am and fled away as the police on duty fired one blank shot, reports UNB.

Businessman stabbed to death in N'ganj

NARAYANGANJ, Mar 27: A businessman was stabbed to death and another seriously injured by some miscreants near Chasara rail crossing in the town today, reports UNB.

The dead was identified as Giasuddin Raja, 40.

Police said some 4-5 miscreants swooped on Raja and his friend Abdur Razzak and hit them with lethal weapons when they were returning from Panchabati at about 7:30 pm.

Raja died on the spot while Razzak was sent to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

Resolve political crisis: Archbishop

By Staff Correspondent

The Archbishop of Dhaka, Michael Rozario, on behalf of the Christian Churches in Bangladesh, has made an earnest appeal to all political leaders to put aside their differences and work together for resolving the present crisis.

In a press statement yesterday, Archbishop Rozario said, "Today the country is in extreme danger. For the welfare of the country and the nation we want to see unity and mutual understanding among the politicians and leaders. So our earnest appeal to all those involved is: irrespective of opinions and activity, earnestly work for the resolving of the present crisis."

He also called upon all Christians to pray daily for peace in the land and to set aside a day this week for fasting.
