EL Goes round the clock April 1, 1996, will see EL TV giving the viewers more hours of viewing time. Over 4 year and EL has successfully entertained the viewers with variety entertainment programmes.

EL TV which until recently was on ZEE Cinema transponder from April 1, 1996 moves on to the BBC transponder. BBC has shifted to PAS4. EL TV, even with four hours of transmission has been very viewer-friendly with its popular programmes. Purush Kshetra, the number one talk show for men has received accolades from India and abroad. Atoz, Ru-Ba-Ru, another ace from EL TV has been voted as one of the most popular political show. Fofane Chalo Cinema, a slickly made film review programme: Sorry Meri Lorry, a very popular comedy; V3+, a not of laughter; Karz, an engaging soap; Shatranj; Mook Usha Uthup Show; Wonder Wings Amar Prem; the music show, Real Countdown; Lakhian Advance Booking; Frooti It's My Choice; Zandu Balm; Dance Mania; Godrej Stowell Film Chat; Liberty Public Demand.

EL TV's programming has been of very high quality. The response to the channel, even with four hours of programmes has been extremely good," says programme head, Zee network, Karuna Samtani. "So, with more transmission hours, we will be building up a viewership base. It is one of our progressive steps towards creating the second ZEE Network channel," adds Karuna.

With EL TV going round the clock from April (it's not April Fool), the channel is set to increase its viewership. Its connectivity, its reach, "its not what's new that is important but the encouragement from the viewers, marketing, response, that EL moves ahead," said Karuna. The coming months should see EL TV keeping a close watch on its viewers, its programme TRPs, market response, all backed by high degree of technical upgradation. EL TV has surely created a niche for itself and going round the clock, they are sure to give their viewers the best in entertainment.
