2-day meet ends in Kathmandu Call to make SAARC tech committees more effective

The two-day second meeting of chairpersons of SAARC Technical Committees concluded in Kathmandu yesterday, according to a faxed message received here from SAARC Secretariat, reports BSS.

The meeting held at the SAARC Secretariat was attended by chairpersons of Technical Committees and National Focal Points (NFPs) from all member states.

The opening session of the meeting was addressed by the SAARC Secretary-General Naeem U Hasan, who highlighted the achievements of SAARC during its first decade.

The secretary-general underscored the need to consolidate the gains in regional co-operation during the last decade and move forward with constructive initiatives to face the challenges before the member states during the next cycle of SAARC activities. In this context, he also stressed the need for making the SAARC technical committees more effective through formulation of concrete programmes and plans of action, their effective implementation and a continuous evaluation of SAARC activities.

The meeting made a series of important recommendations relating to the formulation of future SAARC activities under the aegis of the technical committees, the implementation of these activities in a time-bound manner with precise targets.

The meeting also made suggestions on the desired orientation of the SAARC activities in the new decade to ensure their maximum impact. It was recommended during the meeting that conscious and sustained efforts should be made in future to evaluate all SAARC activities and use such evaluations to continuously improve upon them. Important suggestions were also made during the meeting to strengthen inter-sectoral co-ordination, coordination between national and sectoral focal points.

The National Focal Points (NFPs) from all member countries also met separately on the occasion and finalised the details of the SAARC Youth Awards Scheme (SYAS), which was approved in principle by the fifteenth session of the council of ministers held in New Delhi.

The meeting recommended that a SAARC youth award be given to deserving youth in the age group of 20-35 years.

CPB for a new socialistic movement

The Communist Party of Bangladesh (CPB) yesterday called upon the people to seize the victory achieved in the democratic struggle for greater movement for securing food, shelter, clothes and other essentials for the masses, reports BSS.

Addressing a rally at the party office, leaders opined that a new socialistic movement was necessary to change the society for the interest of the people.

Comrade Shahjiddul Islam Selim, Com Morsheed Ali and others addressed the rally and said it was time that demands should be raised for the solution of the everyday miseries of the people and get the nation rid of the present economy that benefits only a class of people.

After the rally, a procession of workers carrying red flags paraded the city streets and culminated in the party office, a press release said.
