Ajker Kagoj editor granted bail

By SC Correspondent

Kazi Shahid Ahmed, editor of the Ajker Kagoj was granted anticipatory bail by the High Court Division.

A division bench of the HC comprising Justice Mohammad Mozammel Hoque and Justice Mahfuzur Rahman granted him anticipatory bail yesterday as the lower courts did not grant bail to his co-accused Syed Borhan Kabir, Chief Reporter of the daily.

Borhan Kabir got an ad-interim bail on March 31 from the same court.

For publishing a report in the daily on January 29 contending that the Army would go back to the barracks after recovery of the unauthorised arms on January 31 and would not play any role in the parliamentary election held on February 15, a criminal case was filed against the reporter and editor of the daily and Borhan Kabir was arrested in the night of February 29 from his office.

Barrister Amir-ul-Islam and Advocate Mahbub Alam moved for the petitioner.

JCD has damaged image of student politics: BCL

By DU Correspondent

Enamul Haq Shamim, president of Bangladesh Chhatra League (S-P), the student wing of Bangladesh Awami League, condemned caustic remarks by the JCD president Fazlul Haq Milan regarding the officials of the republic and some cultural activists and teachers.

Shamim said that the irresponsible statement of Milan regarding the cultural activists had virtually damaged the historic image of the student politics of the country.

Shamim was speaking at a rally organised by BCL on the Dhaka University campus yesterday.

Fazlul Haq Milan at a rally on Sunday on the Dhaka University campus openly ordered JCD men to punish those officials and artists who had expressed solidarity with the non-cooperation programme called by the opposition political parties.

He congratulated the officials of the republic, intellectuals and cultural activists for expressing solidarity with the people's demand for the caretaker government.

BCL earlier brought out a procession on the campus. The BCL rally was addressed by secretary Ishaq Ali Khan Panna, DU unit president Badruddin Bepari and secretary Abdul Wadud Khokon.

But there will be no programme on the occasion this year due to unavoidable circumstances, the release said.
