'Akbar—The Great' coming on BTV!
 By Staff Correspondent

After the highly acclaimed television serial 'The Sword of Tipu Sultan,' another historical drama 'Akbar—The Great' is billed to enthral Bangladesh Television (BTV) viewers in the coming months.

The latest mega serial, based on the life of the great Moghul emperor, Akbar, will be telecast, dubbed in Bangla, from mid-May.

The serial, still in the making, is being produced and directed by the Great Moghul's modern-day namesake, leading film actor Akbar Khan, with the legendary Naushad Ali, composing the music score.

The serial is being dubbed in Bangla suitable for Bangladesh viewers by CITech Vision Ltd, the group responsible for dubbing popular serials such as 'Arabian Nights,' 'Dark Justice' and 'Time Trax,' which are currently being broadcast on BTV.

The dialogue script and song lyrics for the Bangla version are being translated and edited from the original Hindi and English versions in Bangladesh under CITech's guidance, the company informed the media at a press preview, organised Thursday in the city.

However, due to lack of technical facilities in this country, the actual dubbing is being done in Bombay.

At least sixteen episodes of the serial have been dubbed to date, and work on new episodes is continuing.
