Talk on political parties' environmental agenda June 5

The Forum of Environmental Journalists of Bangladesh (FEJB) has arranged an open discussions on environmental agenda of the major political parties on June 5, marking the World Environment Day 1996, reports BSS.

Leaders of major political parties will highlight their parties environmental agenda at the discussion, scheduled to begin at 11:30 am at Osmani Memorial Hall under the auspices of the Ministry of Environment and Forest.

FEJB chairman Ahmed Nure Alam will preside while Editor of The Daily Star Mahfuz Anam will act as moderator and FEJB general secretary Quamrul Islam Chowdhury as facilitator.

The discussion is open to all.

Poster show at Shilpakala Academy

A six day poster exhibition titled "The Place, the Time and the Point" will begin at the Shilpakala Academy gallery tomorrow, says a press release.

Jointly organised by Goethe Institut Dhaka and Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy, the exhibition by Uwe Loesch will be inaugurated at 4:45 pm today.

Prof Md Shamsul Haque, Adviser for Education, Cultural Affairs, Youth and Sports will perform the opening as chief guest.

EC urged to formulate mobile teams

The Bangladesh Human Rights Commission (BHRC), a non-government human rights watchdog group, urged the Election Commission for formulating mobile teams in each constituency to monitor the violation of the Code of Conduct, reports UNB.

BHRC observed that main political parties are often resorting to provocative slogans and activities against each other which may create violence vitiating the peaceful atmosphere.

BHRC also demanded necessary steps be taken for proper observance of the Code of Conduct by the political parties for holding the election in a free, fair and impartial manner, said a press release.

Chehlum

Chehlum of Nurul Islam Chowdhury, former special correspondent of Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha will be held on June 4, reports BSS.

Quran khwani and milad mahfil will be held at 76/1/A/Kha, North Jatrabari (Bibir Bagicha), in the city.
