

The British Council Vacancies

The British Council will be recruiting to senior posts in its cultural, educational and examinations sections this summer. These are demanding posts which will suit exceptional candidates who

- are fluent in Bangla and both written and spoken English
- are educated to post-graduate standard and have a minimum of 3 years' post-education working experience in a relevant field
- can demonstrate a high level of financial, managerial, planning, inter-personal, and communications skills
- wish to work in a challenging environment and with an organisation committed to equal opportunity policies where recruitment and promotion are determined solely by performance and merit.

The following vacancies are currently available:

- 1. Education Promotion Manager. This post is responsible for the promotion of British education and training resources, the delivery of export promotion services, and the management of the British Commercial Information Centre located in the Dhaka Chamber of Commerce and Industry. The postholder will have a background in the British education system and appropriate marketing skills and experience.
- 2. Examinations Manager. This post manages the Examinations section and is responsible for financial planning and marketing. The postholder will demonstrate commitment to delivering a high quality service to examinations customers and will need strong financial planning skills.
- 3. Arts Manager. This post manages the British Council's cultural programme. Candidates must demonstrate the ability to attract sponsorship, to develop effective working partnerships with both British and Bangladeshi organisations, and to maintain exemplary client relations. The postholder will need to demonstrate an interest in the arts and working experience of either the British or the Bangladeshi cultural scene. Familiarity with living, working, or studying in Britain will be an advantage (though not essential). Appointments will be offered on 1 or 2 year contracts, in all cases renewable. Salary and conditions of service are negotiable, but will be comparable to packages offered by similar organisations and commensurate with the level of responsibility, qualification, and experience required. Applicants should submit their CV, stating precisely which posts they wish to be considered for, to

Impact Evaluation Consultancy Services

A UN agency based in Dhaka is planning to conduct a number of impact evaluation studies for the development projects which it assists and which focus on the poorest people in the rural areas, especially the poor women. The agency intends to prepare and maintain a roster of potential institutions to conduct and analyze surveys and facilitate Participatory Rural Appraisals (PRAs) as well as prepare impact evaluation reports.

The surveys will focus on the socio-economic profiles of the female and male programme participants and their households as well as the change over time. PRAs will complement the surveys and focus on the perceptions of the programme participants and other sections of the rural society about the programmes.

An expression of interest is invited from the qualified local consultancy firms, research and university establishments. They are requested to submit their: (i) organizational profile; (ii) previous relevant experience in quantitative and qualitative field research including references; (iii) CVs of up to ten key experts, half of them being qualified women (this gender-balance will be an important determinant for being put on the roster); and (iv) logistic support services (office, computer, vehicles etc).

The agencies that are put on the roster will be duly acknowledged. The expression of interest should be addressed to Box No D-566, C/o The Daily Star, House No # 11, Road # 3, Dhanmondi R/A, Dhaka-1205. The deadline for receipt of submission is 30 June, 1996.

Immediate Vacancy Senior Executive Secretary

An international organization with a permanent establishment in Dhaka has an immediate vacancy for a female Senior Executive Secretary. The post requires a well experienced and qualified individual with a high level of self motivation. Experience should include working with a foreign organization. She will require excellent communication skills in English and should possess a high degree of competency in word processing etc. This long-term post will provide an excellent career opportunity which includes an attractive remuneration package and a pleasant working environment. The post is open to Bangladeshi nationals and to Resident Expatriates. Interested candidates should write in confidence to GPO Box No 2458 Dhaka by 15 June 1996 enclosing a recent CV, a passport size photo and the names of two referees.
