ISN offers free internet service to polls monitors

The journalists covering the June 12 general election will be offered free service to use the on-line full internet system introduced by Information Services Network (ISN) limited for the first time in Bangladesh to get immediate access to global internet, reports.

Speaking at a news conference at the ISN office at Eskaton in the city yesterday ISN chairman and former minister Enayetullah Khan said, with the inception of the internet, the global telecommunication has become quicker and cheaper.

He said as it is for the first time in Bangladesh we will render our service free of cost to the journalists covering for foreign media till the election is over.

By using the Very Small Aperture Terminal (VSAT) operation, the ISN-internet users can get immediate access to world-wide data and information available in innumerable computer files and bulletin board services meant for business, commerce, researchers and education at a very low cost, said Khan former airbase and Editor of the weekly Holiday.

The users would be able to send and receive E-mail, research materials, file transfer etc directly to and from another E-mail user inexpensively and speedily on real time basis, he said.

LARGEST CHOICE TO AUSTRALASIA

VIA SINGAPORE

Singapore Airlines offers non-stop flights to Singapore every day except Tuesday. From Changi Airport, voted the world's best airport, only Singapore Airlines offers 50 weekly flights to nine cities in Australasia: direct to Adelaide, Brisbane, Cairns, Darwin, Melbourne, Perth, Sydney, Auckland and Christchurch. And, of course, only Singapore Airlines offers inflight service even other airlines talk about.
