JP, JSD, WP hailed for backing AL

Muktijoddha Sangsad chairman Principal Ahad Chowdhury yesterday hailed Jatiya Party, JSD (Rab) and Workers Party for extending unconditional support to the Awami League in forming the government, reports BSS.

In a statement Principal Chowdhury said despite the emergence of Awami League as the single majority party in the polls, different conspiratorial activities were being directed to mislead the people as Awami League was yet to gain the absolute majority.

He said such conspiracies were nothing but a deep rooted design to foil the peoples verdict and their commitment towards democracy reflected in a free and fair election with unprecedented turn out of voters.

Meanwhile, chairman of Bangladesh Jatiya Muktijoddha Sangsad advocate Dewan Sultan Mahmud Khokon and secretary general Shamsul Alam Khokon in a joint statement yesterday termed the decision of Jatiya Party to give support Awami League to form the government as correct and timely.
