Twenty-one yrs of barefoot grief
CHITTAGONG, June 28: Abhinash Chandra Dey, a valiant freedom fighter and a barefooted man for last 21 years had finally broken his promise when Awami League is back to power after so long a period, reports BSS.
Abhinash, a school teacher and an inhabitant of Moheshkhali island had taken this decision to put on his shoes again at a function held in observance of the founding anniversary of Bangladesh Awami League recently when he saw Bangabandhu's daughter Sheikh Hasina taking oath as Prime Minister on BTB on Sunday last.
He had given up his shoes when father of the nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman along with his family members were brutally killed in August 15, 1975.
Since then he had been protesting the killing silently taking pledge that he would put on his shoes on that day when successors of Bangabandhu come to power.
Abhinash had lost his seven close relations in the War of Liberation in 1971.

Pen-Pals Club to award 13

Snatched car recovered
By Staff Correspondent
The car that was snatched by gunmen from a businessman in the city on Wednesday was recovered by police from Kamalapur area Thursday. But they failed to retrieve Tk 12 lakh that was also snatched from the businessman along with the car.
The red colour car was found abandoned at Kabi Jasmuddin Road in Kamalapur yesterday morning, police said.
An unidentified gang snatched the car and Tk 12 lakh from Md Alamgir, 30, at Bishwa Road near Sabujbagh on Wednesday.
Meanwhile, the driver of the car, Alauddin, 25, who was arrested soon after the incident, was still being interrogated. Police suspect he knew the members of the armed gang.
Police hunt was on to nab the criminals. Sabujbagh police added.
