The second wicket fell eight runs later when Ataur had David Hemp caught behind by Rashid Latif for four.

Indians get cold feet

LONDON, June 30: India's preparation for next week's third and final Test against England received a jolt on Saturday when Hampshire allrounder Kevan James took four wickets in four balls, reports Reuter.

India were coasting at 207 for one in Southampton when James caused a sensational collapse by dismissing Vikram Rathore, Sachin Tendulkar. Rahul Dravid and Sanjay Manjrekar with the third to sixth deliveries of his 16th over.

The 35-year-old gentle medium pacer became only the third Englishmen since the War, after Fred Ridgway in 1951 and Pat Pocock in 1972. to perform the feat. He also became the 31st bowler in first class history to take four they would have the chance to India recovered from the setback to reach 362 for five declared. In reply Hampshire were 49 for two at the close.

Saurav Ganguly and Anti Kumble (59) put on an unbroken stand of 155 runs for the sixth wicket, Ganguly finishing unbeaten on 100 to follow his 131 made on his Test debut at Lord's a week ago.

Rathore (95) had earlier featured in an opening stand of 192 with Ajay Jadeja (91). However, the day belonged to James whose largely anonymous county career stretches back to 1980

Someone in the crowd asked me, after the hat-trick ball, if I had ever done three in three before. I had n't, and I joked to them that I'd never managed to get three deliver ies in a row straight enough, he said. The third Test starts next said today, reports AFP. Pakistan Hockey Federation secretary Mudassar Asghar said Shahbaz, one of the country's most influential players, had been dropped from the Atlanta squad on disciplinary grounds. Shahbaz has already accused the PHF of stripping him of the captaincy out of revenge.

Goalkeeper Mansoor Ahmad will instead lead the squad to Atlanta, where the Olympics start July 19. The team will play practice matches in Canada before.

Shahbaz was recently involved in a row with PHF officials over team management and refused to play in four-nation tournaments in England and Holland under the captaincy of Mansoor Ahmad in June.
