Dhaka City Museum inaugurated

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday inaugurated a heritage museum in the city, unveiling a plan for turning Dhaka into a centre of attractions for tourists and researchers from home and abroad, reports UNB.

It will contribute to the development of cultural heritage of the nation, she said opening the Dhaka City Museum at the Nagar Bhaban in the afternoon.

Sheikh Hasina said her government would patronise and extend all out cooperation for the development and flourishing of all kinds of art and culture and for the beautification of the capital city.

"The present government will provide state-level cooperation in enriching the heritage of architecture, art, literature, and drama," she told the inaugural function.

The City Museum, first of its kind in the country, has been set up at the office of the City Corporation, Nagar Bhaban.

It has been set up to uphold the glorious and eventful history of ancient Dhaka. The museum will make the people aware of the tradition of the city by familiarising them with the historic events and antiquities.

It will collect the important documents on Dhaka city and antiques to help the future generation to have a clear idea about the heritage and tradition of the city.

The Prime Minister said only the infrastructural development is not enough, preser-he told newsmen.

Also, he went on saying, it will aim at "generating broader political, commercial and other relations between the two countries."

Bill Richardson who briefed newsmen on Bangladesh, North Korea, Kashmir and Myanmar, said he would pay a goodwill visit to Bangladesh soon.

Richardson said the US government and Congress have congratulated Bangladesh on the remarkable achievements and significant progress.

Bangladesh has taken positive steps in several areas including child labour, he ob-the rest 1.3 million tons will be wheat, added the FPMU projection.

The total foodgrain requirement, estimated at the of 465 grams per capita per day would stand at 20.87 tons in 96-97 while the quantity available for consumption is projected to be 19.57 million tons, leaving a shortfall of 1.29 million tons. The shortfall in 95-96 was 1.32 million tons, according to the WFP.

PM: Consensus

The Prime Minister said there is no alternative to improving the law and order for ensuring development and progress, and continuing the onward march of the democratic process.

The suggestions to be put forward in the workshop would be discussed in parliament and, if necessary, laws would be enacted accordingly, she said.

The inaugural session of the workshop was presided over by Home Minister Rafiqul Islam and addressed by Home Secretary Syed Rezaul Hayat.

Ministers, the Awami League and Jatiya Party MPs, leaders of different political parties, journalists, teachers, representatives of various professional and NGO bodies, high civil and military officials, diplomats and other dignitaries attended the function.

Naripakka, a women rights organisation, demonstrated silently outside the workshop venue with a banner that wanted to know the whereabouts of the Hill Women Federation leader Kalpana Chakma, allegedly kidnapped on June 11 from her village home.

They also distributed leaflets among the workshop guests and participants.

Khaleda visits flood-hit Bogra AL fails to mitigate suffering of people

BOGRA, July 20: Leader of the Opposition in Parliament Begum Khaleda Zia today visited different flood-hit areas of the district and witnessed the plight of lakhs of people living in destitution, reports UNB.

During her day-long trip to 28 flood-stricken areas of Sadar, Sariakandi and Gabtoli thanas, she talked to the affected people and told them to face the calamity with courage and fortitude.

She also distributed relief materials among the flood affected people.

Begum Zia gave them rice, saree, pulses, flour and dry food. She also distributed clothes.

The opposition leader was informed by the local people that no relief from the government reached the district's flood-hit areas. The suffering of the people increased due to lack of food, drinking water

IOJ member to sit in Opposition Bench

The member of parliament of the Islamic Olyka Jote (IOJ) will sit in the Opposition Bench in parliament, reports BSS.

The decision was taken yesterday at a meeting of Mujlis-e-Shura (highest body) of Islamic Olyka Jote in the city with IOJ chairman Shaikhul Hadis Aliam Azizul Haque in the chair.

Begum Zia was accompanied by party leaders Dr Habibur Rahman MP, former MP Helaluzzaman Talukder, Selima Rahman, Ehsanul Kabir, Kamruzzaman Ratan, district BNP president Mahbubur Rahman and her eldest son Tareq Rahman.

The IOJ said it does not support the concept of national consensus government.

The meeting was attended by senior presidium member Maulana Sayed Mohammad Fazlul Karim, Pir Shahab of Charmonia, Jatiya general secretary Abdul Latif Nazami and Moulana Nurul Huda Fayezi.

Special Envoy's position had a special attraction during the BNP regime for promoting business and investment at home and abroad.
