Salary: To be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Duration of Employment: Total involvement may be up to 20 work months, with probation period of 3 months. Up to 9 work-months within a year, commencing approximately 1 October, 1996. Total duration of the project would be 2 years.

Qualifications:

Economist or Engineer, 35-45 years old. Transport experience in Bangladesh, ideally with the railways (traffic and commercial), at mid management level. Experience with computer applications would be an asset. Experience with internationally funded project is highly desirable. Other qualification should include office management experience, good training capabilities, good reporting capabilities (in English). He/she should be fluent in English and knowledge of Bengali would be an advantage. Preference will be given to equally qualified female applicants.

Applications highlighting relevant experience and qualifications should be submitted together with a photograph to Director, Transport, Communications and Tourism Division UN-ESCAP Secretariat, Rajdamern Avenue, Bangkok 10200, Fax: (662)-280-6042, Tel: (662) 288-1371 by 20 August 1996. Interview of shortlisted candidates will be held in Dhaka.

Steps to bring jail reforms soon

Home Minister Major (ret'd) Rafiqul Islam, Bir Uttam, Monday informed the Jatiya Sangsad that the government would soon take steps to bring jail reforms, reports BSS.

Replying to a call-attention notice from Bangabir Quader Siddiqui, Bir Uttam, the minister said that a commission headed by Justice F K Munim had submitted a report in 1980 making recommendations for jail reforms. He said the government would consider those recommendations in keeping with the need of the time and bring jail reforms.

Major (ret'd) Rafiqul Islam said with reforms and under Jail Code the prisoners would be kept separately according to their social status.

Children's workshop

By Staff Correspondent

Fifty children from 25 organisations had a day-long workshop of their dreams and aspirations at the premises of the Women Voluntary Association (WVA) in the city yesterday.

The workshop was organised by the Bangladesh Shishu Adhikar Forum (BSAF) in collaboration with the UNICEF.

The children had discussions, sang songs and made posters about issues such as early marriage, housing in the slums, child labour for 6 to 18 hours a day, poor education facilities, inadequate food and clothing and lack of necessary water and sanitation facilities.

Various NGOs that participated in the workshop 'Children's perspective in Bangladesh in their future' included UCEP, DUS (Bangladesh), Save the Children (USA), Nari Motiree, SEEP and Phul. Similar workshops have already been held at Rajshahi, Chittagong, Rajbari, Jessore, Khulna and two other places in Dhaka.

At the end of the day, they came up with statements of the views of the children on their situation.

The statements will be presented at a conference of SAARC ministers, to be held August 20-22 in Islamabad. Along with ministers, experts from seven SAARC countries are scheduled to attend the conference.
