From N S M Mahbubur Rahman

CHAPAINAWABGONJ, Aug 18: Chapainawabgonj pourashava-by-election for the post of the chairman is going to be held on August 22. This post was vacant as the chairman of the pourashava Abdul Mannan Sentu died in a sudden heart attack a few months ago. Although 10 candidates filed nomination papers, 5 of them withdrew their nomination on the last date of withdrawal.

The candidates who are to contest the by-election of 22nd August are Awami League leader Moinuddin Mondal, BNP leader Kamrul Ahsan BNP, Jamaat leader Ataur Rahman, Jatiya Party leader Kamaluddin and the only independent candidate Nazma Aktar Simki, wife to the late chairman Abdul Mannan Sentu.

A triangular contest is likely to take place among Ataur Rahman, Nazma Aktar Simki and Kamrul Ahsan Habu. Ataur Rahman was the nearest contestant to Abdul Mannan Sentu in the last pourashava election. Sentu, a former JSD and Jatiya Party leader joined BNP with his one thousand supporters a few months before his death. In the last parliamentary elections, BNP candidate Harunur Rashid Harun got the advantage of the large popularity of the late chairman and was elected MP with a large difference with Jamaat candidate Prof. Latifur Rahman.

But according to some observers, the chairman candidate Kamrul Ahsan Habu of BNP will have to face a different consequence as Sentu her self stood as a candidate. In the meanwhile, some renowned BNP leaders have already declared their support in favour of Simki. Not only that all the supporters of Sentu are found to work for Simki.
