Lewis repays Surrey well

LONDON, Aug 30: Surrey defied the Test and County Cricket Board on Thursday when they not only played their dumped England all-rounder Chris Lewis in the crucial championship match against Warwickshire, but also made him captain, reports Reuter.

Lewis, dropped from the England one-day squad after arriving late on the fourth day of the third Test against Pakistan, responded in excellent fashion by taking four for 45 as well as a fine catch as fifth-placed Surrey boosted their championship hopes by bowling out Warwickshire for 195 at The Oval.

By the close Surrey, 13 points behind joint-leaders Essex and Kent at the start of play. had reached 82 without loss.

Essex, with a game in hand over Kent, were held up by a defiant 76 from Craig White but still dismissed sixth-placed Yorkshire for 290 at Headingley. They then made fair progress with the bat reaching 79 for two.

Meanwhile. Kent's efforts to scramble baik lost ground were washed away at Tunbridge Wells where they only had time to reduce Nottinghamshire to 40 for three before the weather closed in.

Third-placed Derbyshire kept up the pace as they dismissed Worcestershire for 238 despite the efforts of opener Phil Weston who carried his bat for 100 not out. Kim Barnett then led the charge with 83 not out as Derbyshire raced to 166 for one.

Leicestershire, 10 points off the lead in fourth spot, enjoyed the best of days as David Millns took four for 35 as they dismissed Somerset for a paltry 83. Leicestershire had opened up a lead of 119 as they reached 202 for five by stumps.

At Portsmouth, Liam Botham was unable to match his bowling success of Wednesday with the bat. He made 30 in an hour as Hampshire were bowled out for 232.

They took a first-innings lead of 33 but Middlesex had reached 226 for one at the close with Mark Ramprakash passing 1,000 runs for the season on his way to 81 no out.

HONG KONG, Aug 30: Thirdseeded Australian Brett Martin blamed ring-rustiness for his defeat at the hands of compatriot Dan Jenson in the second round of the Hong Kong Open on Thursday, reports Reuter.

Veteran Martin, losing finalist to Jansher Khan last year, has not played competitively since May and failed to get into his rhythm as world number 23 Jenson took the match 15-9, 17-14, 7-15, 9-15 and 15-14.

"I felt like I was struggling throughout and it felt very hot on court," said 33-year-old Martin, winner here in 1993.
