chief resigns

COLOMBO, Sept 12: Srt Lanka's millionaire cricket chief Upali Dharmadasa resigned Thursday to take the blame for a mix-up at last week's Singer World Series finals, the Board of Control for Cricket here said, reports AFP.

Dharmadasa said he was accepting responsibility for not announcing Sports Minister SB Dissanayake as the chief guest at the Singer series conclusion ceremony although the minis-ter had been told he would be the main guest.

Dissanayake had said he was embarrassed by the mix-up when the head of the Singer company here was announced as the chief guest.

The cricket board said its two vice presidents. Tilanga Sumathipala and Harendra Dunuwille, will act until fresh elections are held in March next year

Dharmadasa, a leading businessman, was elected head of the cricket board six months ago, shortly after Sri Lanka won the World Cup.

Aussies name 14-man squad

MELBOURNE, Sept 12: Australia on Thursday named opener and captain Mark Taylor and leg-spinner Shane Warne in a 14-man squad to tour India in October and November, but both players may be forced to pull out because of injury, reports Reuter.

Taylor and Warne, who are both recovering from recent surgery, missed the recent tour to Sri Lanka and have yet to prove their fitness.

Australian Cricket Board chief executive Graham Halbish said: "Test selectors (will) monitor the fitness of a number of players in the lead-up to the team's departure on September 12: Co-world number one Monica Seles. Olympic champion Lindsay Davenport. Mary Joe Fernandez and Linda Wild were named on Wednesday to the US team that will play champions Spain in the Fed Cup finals this month, reports Reuter. "I feel this is the best team we can put on the court against Spain," said US captain Billie Jean King in a conference call. "I know it's going to be an awesome event. I just hope we can bring back the cup to the United States.

The best-of-five tie to determine the women's team championship will be held September 28-29 at the Atlantic City Convention Centre.

Spain, winners of the cup the last three years, beat the United States in last year's final. They are anchored by Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario and Conchita Martinez.

Missing from the US team is Gigi Fernandez, who is ranked number two in the world in doubles. Fernandez was asked to leave the last tie against Japan only an hour before the competition began after an undisclosed dispute with King.

integrity. Foreman ranted and raved about Tyson stopping Seldon at one minute 49 seconds of the first round after some dubious punches, one of which appeared to have existed only in Seldon's imagination.

Foreman, 48, said he will fight Grimsley for the littleknown and little-respected World Boxing Union heavyweight title.

Grimsley at first insisted he was 29 years old. When confronted with a newspaper article reporting he was born in 1961, he still insisted on his age. But then said he definitely. was not born in 1961.

Only when pressed did he finally admit he was 34

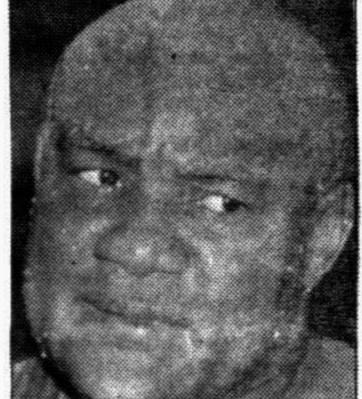

The reason he lied on Foreman's integrity show? "I told everybody I was 29 is to avoid these type of questions," Grimsley said. "Age is a perception of the public. I perceive myself a very young 34."

But Foreman, wno said it was okay if anyone wanted to say he was 34, said, "If there's gonna be integrity in boxing it depends on me.

Foreman said he would tell Tyson to his face that "he should call a halt to (fighting inferior fighters). If you want to be champ of the world and you fight like that you gotta get outta there.

'These guys don't care. I'd tell him in the room right now. "Grow up, be a man. Stop acting like a sissy," Foreman said. Foreman said he plans to fight in Tokyo and somewhere in Europe and then in Houston. He did not name any of his projected opponents.
