Quader opens CYP course on 'youth and dev' in Chandigarh

Bangladesh Minister of State for Youth, Sports and Cultural Affairs Obaidul Quader inaugurated the 16th diploma course on 'Youth and Development' organised by Commonwealth Youth Programme (CYP) yesterday at the Asia Centre of the CYP, situated in Chandigarh, India, reports BSS.

Youths from Sri Lanka, Maldives, Hong Kong, Singapore, Pakistan, Brunei, Malaysia, India and Bangladesh are taking part in the 15-week long training course.

Speaking as the chief guest at the inaugural session chaired by Seela Ebert, regional director of the Asia Centre of CYP, the state minister lauded CYP for its commendable role in framing youth policy, human resource development and youth empowerment.

Referring to the information super-highway which is making the world a global village, Obaidul Quader appreciated the youth training courses which are to be introduced by the CYP in the member countries through distance learning mode in collaboration with the national open university systems.

Obaidul Quader said with the rapid changing world scenario, many of the Asian nations had exposed their potentiality in both high-tech and labour-intensive innovations.

Anomalies in BOU alleged

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Open University Teachers' Association (BOUTA) has alleged that irregularities and corruption have been existing in the Open University for a long time and expressed resentment against the Vice Chancellor for ignoring its 18-point charter of demands.

In a press statement on Sunday, president and general secretary of BOUTA Dr Shirin Haq and Md Tofazzal Islam respectively, alleged that the Open University authorities had imposed some rules and regulations on August 8 which did not comply with the University Act, 1992.

The association had submitted a memorandum to the board of governors following the imposition of the rules and regulations, but the authorities did not respond. The BOUTA leaders alleged.

It had also handed over to the authorities a 18-point charter of demands to improve the academic atmosphere and teachers' facilities, which was ignored, they added.

BOUTA has requested the Chancellor of the university to remove anomalies from the university by taking proper steps, the statement said.

Precht's art show begins

A week-long art exhibition of eminent German artist Michael Mathias Precht began at the National Museum in the city yesterday, reports UNB.

Second Secretary of the German Embassy in Dhaka, Michael Wolff opened the exhibition, organised by German Cultural Centre.

The inaugural function was also addressed, among others, by head of the department of Graphic Designs, Institute of Fine Arts, Dhaka University, Prof Somorjit Ray Chowdhury and Director of German Cultural Centre, Barbara Mayer-Marroth.

A total of 41 paintings will be on display at the exhibition, which will remain open from 10 am to 4.30 pm on weekdays and from 3.30 pm to 7 pm on Friday.

She presented a paper titled 'Determinants of contraceptive use of male family heads in rural Bangladesh: A multilevel analysis'.

173 arrested in city

Police rounded up 173 people on various charges from different parts of the city yesterday, reports UNB.

Of them, 29 were wanted criminals and 38 held on charges of murder, dacoity, snatching, extortion and terrorism, said a DMP press release.

Maid missing

By Staff Correspondent

A maid, Afroza Akhter, 15, has been missing from a house at Avol Das Lane in Tikatuli area under Sutrapur thana in the city since September 15.

Afroza, daughter of Miruddin of Khirati under Kapasia thana in Gazipur district, was employed at the residence of one MA Halim, family sources said.

Afroza is four feet and eight inches high and of mixed complexion.

On the day of Afroza's disappearance, Halim, his wife and children had gone out of the house at around 8 am, leaving her alone in the third floor flat. Later, when they returned at about 3 pm, they did not find Afroza in the house, sources added.

A general diary was lodged with Sutrapur thana on September 16 in this connection, police said.
