PM hears problems of 25 people

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday initiated a 'people's programme' to know the problems of the people directly from them, reports UNB.

After assumption of power three months back, this was her first meet with people from various strata of society, held at Prime Minister's office in the afternoon.

Some 25 people — most of them were women — met the Prime Minister to tell her their personal problems. Hasina spent nearly three hours with them listening to their problems. She consoled some of them, assured some and exchanged pleasantries with others.

Hasina was stricken with grief when a fair-looking teenage boy stretched his hands out from the wrist. A student of class ten, the boy lost his wrists for protesting illegal activities of the local mastans of his area.

The boy, Altaf Islam, aged about 15, came to the Prime Minister with his mother and elder sister and remained silent all the time while his weeping mother was telling the tragic tale to the Prime Minister.

They appealed to the Prime Minister to take action against the terrorists and make arrangement for grafting the wrists of the boy. A group of hoodlums, allegedly the Titu group of Jigajola, cut off both his hands from wrists on April 26 this year.

On that day, the mastan group took him to Hazaribagh area from in front of his house at Munshibari in Jigajola area of the city and chopped his wrists.

Hasina told the family members of Altaf that action would be taken against the terrorists and the government would take necessary steps for the treatment of the boy.

A middle aged woman, Kamrunnahar, whose son has been killed, also appealed to the Prime Minister to take action against the terrorists responsible for the killing of her son.

Kamrunnahar who came from topbagh area of the city, alleged that her son, Enamul Islam Rubel, was killed by the terrorists of Chhatra Dal on January 5 this year. She said the terrorists were still threatening her family members.

The Prime Minister consoled the lady and assured her of proper action against the terrorists.

A ten-year-old girl, Adrita, came to the Prime Minister to see her most favourite person. A tiny girl presented her with a small model of boat and poetry book written by her father.

A septuagenarian woman who lost her husband and son during the War of Liberation in 1971 came to the Prime Minister, apprise the PM with problems facing her. The old woman said she was leading a miserable life after losing her husband and son.

The widow of late singer Firoz Shah met the Prime Minister and presented her with a photograph and latest cassette of her husband, who died on December 16 last year while singing a popular song 'Ek sec' onder nai bharasha'.

The Prime Minister directed the Silpakala Academy to give academy pension for the family of late singer and assured the widow of Firoz Shah of further help.

The wife of a slain freedom fighter, Monjur Begum, appealed to the Prime Minister for action against the killers. Manjura Begum, wife of Azizul Huq Majumder, who came from Fulgazi of Feni district, said her husband was killed on June 26 this year.

Hasina consoled the widow of Azizul Huq and handed her a cheque for Tk 1.50 lakh for continuing the studies of her all school-going children.

Mother of Shaheed sepoy Shamsuzzaman Bir Uttam, Ayetunnisa, aged about 65, was also among the visitors. She came to the PM with her grandson and appealed to her for doing something for the son of Shamsuzzaman.

Children of city's Arambagh area held a rally in the city yesterday demanding trial of the killers of Khokon, secretary general of Arambagh football club. —Star photo

Correction
In our item of 'New envoys being appointed' published in The Daily Star yesterday, it was inadvertently mentioned that Mahmuda Huq Chowdhury would become the country's first women ambassador after her proposed posting in Bhutan. The correct position is that she would be the first women ambassador from the diplomatic corps.

Several years earlier Ms Tahmina Dolly following political appointment served as ambassador to Sri Lanka.
