Alleged mugger beaten to death

By Staff Correspondent

An alleged mugger was beaten to death at Baghbari under Mirpur thana yesterday morning.

Fatally injured Mohammad Suruzzamal, 20, son of Khairul Alam, died at his residence at about 9 in the morning. Police said that Suruzzamal was beaten up after he was caught red handed with a knife on the town protection embankment by the executive committee members of the Baghbari Bazar mosque at about 8pm on Monday.

His body was sent to the DMCH morgue.

Meanwhile, Nobil Hossain, brother of Suruzzamal, lodged a case with the Mirpur thana in this connection. None was arrested till writing the report.

Nadi Shikasti Forum discussion meet held

A discussion meeting on 'World Habitat Day and the Question of Rehabilitation of River Erosion Affected People of Bangladesh' was held at the National Press Club yesterday morning, says a press release.

Organised by the Nadi Shikasti Gono Adhikar Forum (NASHGAF), the meeting was presided over by Mustafizur Rahman Khan while NASHGAF convener Sharif A Kafi made the introductory presentation. The guest discussants included journalists Santosh Gupta and Mahfuzullah, Prof Mesba-us-Saleheen of Jahangirnagar University and Adv. Khalilur Rahman.

The speakers observed that a 'disaster response' approach should be adopted for solving the problems of river erosion affected people.

A rally was brought out in the city yesterday in observance of the International Day of the Aged. The Ministry of Social Welfare and Prabin Hitoishi Sangha organised the rally. — Star photo
