MCCI team meets Tofael
 A delegation of the Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MCCI) led by its President Samson H Chowdhury called on Minister for Commerce and Industries Tofael Ahmed at his office yesterday, reports BSS.
 The chamber leaders drew the attention of the minister to some of the problems confronted by the business community. They raised the issue of frequent power failure in their enterprises. The minister gave a patient hearing and assured them to resolve their problems.
 The minister said the government had already amended the laws relating to trade and investment to give a push to the national economy through industrialisation. If necessary, he said, government would change the existing commercial laws for the benefit of the investors.
 The chamber leaders had words of praise for the formation of the committee with representatives from organisations concerned to formulate the country's industrial policy. Executive Chairman of the Board of Investment Dr Toufique Elahi Chowdhury was present in the meeting.

DU to observe Mourning Day Oct 15

Dhaka University authorities have taken elaborate programmes to observe the Dhaka University Mourning Day on October 15, reports BSS.
 On this day in 1985, 39 people, mainly university students, were killed when the roof of the Jagannath Hall TV room collapsed on them.
 The day-long programmes include hoisting of black flags at all main buildings of the university, keeping the university flag half-mast and wearing black badges.
 Students, teachers, officials and employees will bring out a joint mourning procession at 6:30 am from Aparajeyo Bangla and march towards the Jagannath Hall at Smriti Soudha. They will place wreaths and stand there in silence for one minute.
 Special prayers on behalf of the Hindu, Buddhist and Christian communities will be offered for the victims at the Jagannath Hall premises at 8 am. Special Munajat will be offered at all mosques of the university after Asr prayers.
 On the occasion, the Jagannath Hall Students Union will organise a blood donation programme at the hall premises at 11:30 am, a discussion meeting at TSC at 4 pm and a cultural programme in the evening.
 Besides, portraits of the victims and some essentials used by them will be put on display at the hall premises from 9 am to 6 pm on the day.
 Meanwhile, an inter-house football tournament titled "October Smriti Tournament" organised by the Jagannath Hall authorities began at the hall ground on Saturday.

UNDP official meets Speaker

UNDP Resident Representative in Dhaka David Lockwood called on Speaker Humayun Rashid Chowdhury at his parliamentary office here yesterday, reports UMB.
 They discussed matters relating to UNDP's support and assistance for modernisation of Parliament Secretariat and strengthening the parliament.
 The UNDP representative also signed a preparatory assistance document for providing necessary support to strengthen parliamentary democracy in Bangladesh, said a press release.
 The formal work of the modernisation process started with the signing of the document.
 Different aspects of entire modernisation plan, including launching of parliamentary task force also came up for discussion during the meeting.
