River erosion renders 2000 families homeless

From Our Correspondent

FARIDPUR, Oct 16: About two thousand families were rendered homeless by the erosion of river Padma and Arial Khna in seven unions under two thanas - Char Bhadrasan and Sadarpur of the district.

Advocate Mosarraf Hossain local MP visited the area recently and told this correspondent that the erosion affected unions include Char Jhawkanda, Char Harirampur. and Char Bhadrasan in Char Bhadrasan thana: Akoter Char. Char Nasirpur, Narikalbaria and Char Manair in Sadarpur

With the increase of water level in the Padma, the erosion has started a fresh - he said. Char Jhawkanda, Char Nasirpur and Narikalbaria union were almost totally devoured by the Padma and other unions devoured partially.

The erosion affected people took shelter on embankments and in neighbouring areas. They are passing their days in great hardship as most of them are jobless — it was learnt.

The MP has urged the concerned authorities to distribute relief materials among the erosion victims and to rehabilitate them immediately.

Another housewife falls prey to dowry

SIRAJGANJ, Oct 16: A housewife in Shahjadpur thana of the district fell prey of dowry as she died of acid burn injuries on Thursday night after fight-ing for her life for more then a month, reports UNB.

Police said Anwara (23), of Nagardala village was admitted to General Hospital with serious burn injuries on September 8 when her husband Abdur Razzak with the help of her mother Rokeya Khatun Rubi poured acid on her body.

Anwara's father Madhu Pramanik, a day labourer of Bolibari village in Ullahpara thana, reported to have pledged to give dowry of Tk 15,000 to Abdur Razzak during his daugh-ter's wedding. But the poor father managed to give Tk 10,000 at the time of wedding on Augu st 24,1990.

Abdur Razzak was repeatedly asking Anwara to bring the money from her father's house and tortured her. On the fatefull night the cruel husband poured the acid as Anwara refused to comply with her husband's or-
