President visits Puja Mandap

President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed said here yesterday that the eternal message of every religion is to love one's motherland, reports BSS.

The president was addressing the devotees during his visit to the Puja Mandap at the Ramkrishna Math and mission.

He said the Muslims, the Hindus and the people of other communities had fought in the Liberation War unitedly in 1971. Now the people irrespective of their faiths must put in combined efforts for the continued peace and progress of the country. Patriotism is a part of one's faith and all our activities should be guided by this spirit, he stressed.

President Shahabuddin reminded all that the Muslims and the Hindus had been living in peace and harmony in this country for thousands of years. "This is our social characteristic," he said, adding "social and communal harmony should be maintained at any cost."

The president told the gathering that the evil forces, however powerful, were bound to be defeated. It was truth and justice which would ultimately triumph, he observed.

BCUTA team calls on Sadek

Education Minister ASHK Sadek has said the present government is pledge-bound to create an academic atmosphere in the country's educational institutions by meeting the legitimate demands of the teachers, reports UNB.

He said this while talking to a delegation of the Bangladesh College University Teachers' Association (BCUTA) at the Education Ministry's conference room yesterday.

The BCUTA leaders at the meeting put forward various demands, including announcement of time-scale after a specific time gap, creation of assistant professor and professor's posts in private colleges and exempting the teachers from income tax.

Aid sought

RANGAMATI, Oct. 20: The Council of Hill People has urged the government to provide financial assistance and interest-free loan to the people affected by a fire at Maini Bazar under Langdu thana, reports BSS.

The fire, which broke out on October 13, gutted about 150 shops and many houses, a press release of the Council said.

The council condemned the killing of an SI of Rangachari thana by the so called Shanti Bahini and demanded exemplary punishment those responsible for it.

CCHRB terms Habiganj-2 by-polls fair

By Staff Correspondent

Coordinated Council for Human Rights in Bangladesh (CCHRB) in a statement termed October 15 by-election in Habiganj-2 constituency of the Jatiya Sangsad as a free and fair one.

It said, three roving representatives of CCHRB and 60 observers of its member organisation, Bangladesh Human Rights Journalists' Forum, observed the by-poll and found the overall process of election as free, fair and impartial.

The observers found that there were polling agents of candidates at all booths and observed performance of presiding and polling officers. They also observed management of voting centres, law and order situation and process of balloting.

Death in custody Huda demands punishment to people responsible

By Staff Correspondent

Barrister Najmul Huda, former Secretary General and founder of Bangladesh Society for Enforcement of Human Rights has strongly condemned the death of Tuhin in police custody and demanded exemplary punishment to the people responsible for the youth's death in Motijheel thana on Thursday.

In a statement on Friday, Barrister Huda said that whether Tuhin died of torture or committed suicide as claimed by police is a matter to be investigated. But death in police custody cannot absolve police or the administration of responsibility.

Huda urged the society to investigate the death of Tuhin and make its reports available to people. He was also critical of what he said recent tendency of police to arrest people under section 54 after they receive bail by court and subject them to torture.

Barrister Huda alleged that such method to send back accused to lock-up tantamounts to contempt of court. Because, he claimed that such persons can be rearrested but only after moving to the courts to cancel their bail. It is an offence to detain such people without approval of the court and subject them to torture, Barrister Huda alleged.

The state minister witnessed the historical artifacts in the museum and climbed the 70-foot high hill in the area.
