President urged to exempt taxes of donors to edn institutions

A nine-member delegation of the Independent University, called on President Shahabuddin Ahmed at Bangabhaban Monday, reports BSS.

Dr A Majeed Khan, president, governing council of the university, led the delegation. Members of the delegation apprised the President, who is also the chancellor of the University, of the objectives of establishing the university and the problems in running its affairs.

They requested the President for exemption of taxes of the donors to the educational institutions like this university and to implement the recommendations made by a committee set up by the government for running smoothly the private universities in the country.

They also requested the President to be present at the convocation ceremony of the university to be held in May next year.

President Shahabuddin said that the private universities should employ highly qualified teachers and have their own land and building.

Mohiuddin likely to be reinstated

By Staff Correspondent

Mohiuddin Ahmed, former Director General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the former Deputy Permanent Representative of Bangladesh Mission in New York is going to be reinstated, according to sources.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina had approved the proposal on September 19 while President Shahabuddin Ahmed gave his consent to the proposal for reinstatement a few days ago, the same sources said.

Mohiuddin will join the Ministry of Foreign Affairs after withdrawing his case that he had filed before the Administrative Tribunal in August '95, stating that he had been retired on political grounds. The case was due for hearing on Nov. 3.
