BRCS donors' meet held
President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed said yesterday that more people around the world were taking increasing interest to associate themselves with the Red Crescent movement to respond to the needs of the suffering humanity, irrespective of colour, caste and creed, reports BSS.

Inaugurating the donors' meeting of Bangladesh Red Crescent Society (BRCS) at a local hotel in the city, the President said millions of people associated with the Red Crescent movement to render service to the victims of armed conflict, natural disaster and other human tragedies.

Justice Shahabuddin welcomed the representatives of donor countries who came here all the way to help BRCS in the implementation of its programmes.

The representatives from USA, UK, Japan, South Korea, Hong Kong, United Arab Emirates and Switzerland attended the meeting.

Health and Family Welfare Minister Salauddin Yusuf, chairman of BRCS, Abdus Salam, MP, and vice-president of Red Crescent Society, Towhidur Rahman, spoke on the occasion.
