Salt, sugar, wheat and some other essential commodities after being smuggled in from across the Indian border areas find ready customers in the other part of the border in Bangladesh. The photo, taken last week, shows salt bags loaded on bicycles are being carried to a local market in Tappu area of Telkupi border in Chapainawabganj district. This way smuggled goods penetrate into the border evading vigilance of BDR stationed to curb such crime.

Two get 7-year RI for dacoity

From Our Correspondent
PABNA, Nov 4: Two persons were sentenced to suffer seven-year rigorous imprisonment (RI) each for attempting to commit a dacoity.

Begum Laila Salma Banoo, Assistant Sessions Judge, Second Court, Pabna, awarded the punishment after hearing evidences and perusing records during the trial in the case.

The prosecution case, in brief, is that at about 9 pm on December 10, 1995, a gang of armed dacoits led by Abd I Baten, of village Bharadwajpur and Amir Ali, of village Hagara went to Punduria bazar within Santhia thana and attempted to commit dacoity in the shop of one Abul Kalam. Abul Kalam sustained serious injury while resisting the dacoity.

On hearing hue and cry of Abul Kalam, people from the nearby rushed to the place of occurrence and caught two of the dacoits, Abdul Baten and Amir Ali red-handed. The villagers also recovered three pipe-guns from their possession. The other members of the gang, however, managed to escape. The two dacoits along with the pipe-guns were handed over to Santhia police.
