Speakers at a discussion observe
Trial of killers of Bangabandhu to help establish rule of law

Speakers at a discussion here yesterday observed that the trial of killers of Bangabandhu and four national leaders would make easier the way to establishment of rule of law and democracy in the country as pledged by the present government, reports BSS.

They said public opinion had already been in favour of the trial of those heinous killers who inflicted wanted to destroy the victory achieved through the independence by killing country's golden sons including the Father of the Nation and his close associates.

On the occasion of National Solidarity Day a photography exhibition of Khalid Haider entitled: 'Role in establishing of Democracy: From Zia to Khaleda Zia' is being organised, says a press release.

BNP Chairperson and former Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia will inaugurate the exhibition at her 9 Minto Road residence at 11 am today.

The exhibition will remain open from 11 am to 6 pm.

Cultural activist
killed in mishap

Mahfuzur Rahman, a cultural activist, was killed on Tuesday in a bus accident on his way to Comilla. He was a member of the Rabindrasangeet Sammilan Parishad, Gazipur branch and a diploma holder of Kanthoshilon, the noted recitation and theatre group, says a press release.

Rahman was a former Assistant Manager of the Security Printing Corporation at Gazipur.

Call for awareness against AIDS

Speakers at a day-long AIDS awareness workshop has stressed the need for creating awareness against AIDS, particularly among students, reports UNB.

Organised by ADRA Bangladesh Health Education Project, the AIDS awareness workshop for college students was held at its office in Mirpur section-2 on Tuesday.

The speakers also expressed concern over the spreading of Sexually Transmitted Diseases (STD), one of the main reason that helps spread AIDS.

It was also addressed by Project officer Pobon Ritchi, Anjuman Ara Beuty and Swapna Sarker.

Bangladesh Regional Newspaper Council formed

A meeting of the Publishers and editors of newspapers published from outside Dhaka was held recently with Alhaj Liaqat Ali, Editor of Dainik Purbanchal, in the chair, says a press release.

An Executive Committee of Bangladesh Regional Newspaper Council was formed in the meeting.

Alhaj Liaqat Ali (Editor), Dainik Purbanchal, Khulna) and Humayun Kabir Kalu (Editor, Dainik Jannabumi, Khulna) was elected President and Secretary General respectively of the Council.

A 41-member committee was formed with Professor Abdul Wahab (Editor, Dainik Rupashri, Bangladesh, Comilla) as Treasurer, the press release added.

Women's Day on Food Nov 15

Women's Day on Food will be observed through discussions in Rome, the venue of the World Food Summit, on November 15, reports UNB.

NGO Forum on Food Security approved the Women's Day on Food at its consultation on World Food Summit, held in Rome from September 19-21.

The World Food Summit will be held November 13-17.

In observance of the day, a day-long programme has been chalked out with four sessions of discussions and cultural programmes, said a press release here.

Organisers of the day include NGOs of Germany, India, Bangladesh and Italy as well as many other countries of Africa and Latin America.

The speakers, who were all valiant freedom fighters and were actively associated in formulating country's constitution and other programmes after the independence under the leadership of Bangabandhu, recalled with high praise the contributions of these four leaders during the War of Liberation and in the aftermath.
