UP chairmen team calls on Speaker

A delegation of union parishad chairmen from Daudkandi and Homna thanas under Comilla district called on Speaker Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury at his Sangsad Bhavan office yesterday, reports BSS.

The UP chairmen discussed with the Speaker various problems faced by the people of the char areas of these thanas which include construction of road and culverts and establishment of schools and colleges.

The delegation also demanded that the char areas of these thanas be brought under an independent thana. The Speaker assured the delegation that he would bring the demand to the notice of the respective authorities.

JU student bodies pledge to restore normalcy on campus

By JU Correspondent

Student bodies of Jahangirnagar University at a meeting with the university authorities yesterday, pledged to restore normalcy on the campus.

The meeting reviewed overall situation prevailing on the campus.

Student leaders, provost of all residential halls, university proctor and vice-chancellor were present at the meeting.

All the student leaders agreed to extend all-out cooperation to drive out the outsiders and armed men from the campus.

However, no decision was taken over the withdrawal of an indefinite strike, called by the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) protesting capture of four residential halls allegedly by the Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) on Tuesday.

Earlier, at a Syndicate meeting on Saturday all examinations under JU were declared suspended till November 16.

The meeting also asked all the students to return to their respective dormitories to continue regular academic activities.
