THAT some people can spend hours at the end of a fishing rod, hoping some half-witted fish will fall for the bait I can't how the fish look at it but on land, sportfishing is often called angling. It generally involves a whole range of equipment to catch game fish. Sport angling is one of the more popular forms of recreation in the world. It lets people get into the outdoors, presents them with the challenge of outwitting and then fighting a game fish, and of course, provides them with food.

In modern sportfishing freshwater fishing takes place in lakes, ponds, rivers and streams, whereas saltwater fishing is done in the ocean, estuaries, and rivers influenced by tides.

Then there is also Whaling, that is, to commercially hunt whales to obtain oil, whale bone, meat and various by-products. Evidence indicates that whales were hunted for food and oil as early as prehistoric times. Throughout recorded history, whaling has contributed substantially to the wealth of numerous countries, and has been dominated successively by Norse, Basque, English, Dutch, American, Norwegian, Japanese, and Russian whalers.

Whaling is a noisy sport wherein anglers wait for not getting their daily catch.

Abahani's late awakening

Sports Reporter

Defending champions Abahani kept their slim title hopes alive with a 4-1 thrashing of East End Club in a Danish Premier Division football league return leg clash at the Mirpur Stadium last night.

In an one-sided affair, Mamun Joarder, Than Toe Aung from Myanmar, Rumi and Mizan scored once each for the winners while emerging national under-19 forward Sourav Majumder Raju pulled back one for the Old Dhaka outfit.

Abahani, winners of the last two league titles, who's dream of a rare treble got a big blow last week when they drew with promoters Bangladesh Boys Club 1-1 to go four point behind their arch rivals and league front runners Mohammedan Sporting Club, led the first half 1-0.

Although the sky colours took more than half an hour to break the deadlock, but once they were up in the 34th minute, the match remained under their control for the rest of the period during which they added a further three goals having conceded one.

National winger Mamun Joarder who passed most the season sitting on the bench with an injured right knee, put Abahani ahead when he headed home a floater sent by his Myanmar teammate Aung from the left flank (1-0). After the short break Aung, the former Myanmar national midfielder, doubled the margin with another header from a right side Barun cross in the 56th minute (2-0).

Former Abahani skipper Rumi Rizvi Karim, who returned to his old club this year after passing two uneventful seasons with Muktiyoddha Sangsad, made it 3-0 in the 77th minute. He found a Mamun Joarder minus and, being all too unguarded inside the East End box, easily beat the custodian Tota with a soft placing shot (3-0).

But the celebration were dented as East End's prolific striker Sourav Majumder Raju reduced the margin in the next minute with a magnificent angular shot from the left side past the Abahani goalie Biplab over his head (1-3).

However, national striker Mizan, who came in as substitute for Russian recruit Georgy in the late second half, put the match beyond East End's reach with a power-packed grounder from a Rumi pass in the 87th minute.

With yesterday's goal, Mizan, who scored a hatrick against the same opponents in the first leg match which Abahani won 8-0, increased his individual tally of the league to seven goals, still one short of Mohammedan's Afaz. On the other hand, yesterday's goal was the fifth by Raju in this league. With the win, Abahani carried 25 points from eleven matches one point behind Mohammedans who have 26 points from ten matches.

On the other hand, the defeat kept East End Club at the bottom of the table jointly with Bangladesh Boys Club both having six points.

Yellow cards: Barun (Abahani) and Zahid (East End club).

TEAMS

The decision was reached after a high level meeting at the secretariat with State Minister for Youth and Sports Obaidul Quader in the chair. It was learnt that the policy makers have also decided to increase the amount of cash awards from Taka 5,000 to Taka 20,000 in addition to the gold medal.

The meeting was also attended among others by Saber Hossain Chowdhury MP, Harun-ur Rashid MP and the secretary of the Ministry of Youth and Sports ASM Shahjahan.

Big victory for Mohammedans hand stroke-maker had earlier scored a dazzling 54 in his side's Group A opener against Gopibagh.

After the departure of Parvez in the 16th over with the scoreboard reading 64/2, skipper Aminul Islam and Sanwar guided Mohammedans home without further damage sharing 78 runs for the undefeated third wicket.

Bulbul, the architect of Mohammedans' triumph in both the domestic meets including the Premier league title last season, continued his prolific form with the willow scoring an unbeaten 41.

The dark and dapper national vice-captain, in his polished 67-ball stay at the crease, clouted a massive sixer off off-spinner Sohail-al Islam sending it to the VIP stand much to the delight of a few hundred fans at the big blow.

Earlier, sent into bat in the morning, Victoria caved in rather meekly in the face of some fired-up bowling from Mohammedans pace trio of Hasibul Hossain Shanto, Khaled Mahmud Sujon and Amin.

Shanto, the tall national right-arm seamer who bowled with venom, finished with 3/31 in his 8.4 overs while his new-ball partner Sujon with 2/18 was equally impressive with the cherry. Besides, Mustadir Litu, the young left-arm spinner, took two for 23 in his ten economic overs.

For Victoria, who finished runners-up a couple of seasons back, Pappu and Ripon showed signs of a commanding total putting on 53 runs for the second wicket after skipper Sajid Hasan departed for only six leaving his side 26/1.

But once Litu removed Pappu for 44, Victoria lost their last eight wickets for the addition of only 56 runs. Ripon, who stood his ground against a never-ending procession at the other end, also scored 44 before Shanto rattled his wickets.

Zola bucks Chelsea up

LONDON, Nov 12: Gianfranco Zola officially joined compatriots Gianluca Vialli and Roberto Di Matteo on Monday and claimed the Italian connection could fire the London club towards European honours, reports AFP.

The 30-year-old international became the latest top name recruit to join Chelsea's revolution when he completed the formalities of his 4.5 million pounds (about seven million dollars) move from Serie A side Parma.

Zola, who has signed a three and a half years contract, has played just once with fellow striker Vialli, for Italy against Cyprus in 1994, but he made it clear he believes the pair could hit it off.

"I think we can play well together and we won't have any problems," said Zola.

"I believe I can help him to score goals and that with him I can help the team to reach our aims."
