BCL blames JCD for 'terrorist activities' at JU

By JU Correspondent
Jahangirnagar University (JU) unit of Bangladesh Chhatra League (S-P) yesterday blamed the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) for terrorist activities on the campus.
Addressing a press conference at the JU Journalists' Association (JUJA) office, the BCL (S-P) leaders urged the JU authorities to take stern action against all terrorists on the campus immediately.
Holding the pro-BNP JCD responsible for the "terrorist activities" on the campus, BCL (S-P) leaders called upon the JCD leaders of the university to sit for a discussion to settle the problems prevailing on the campus.

Among others, the press conference was addressed by the JU BCL (S-P) president, Mohammad Mohibullah, general secretary (GS) Duranta Biplob and assistant GS Moniruzzaman Kaosar.

Meanwhile, uneasy calm prevailed on the campus on the fifth consecutive day of an indefinite strike called by JCD in protest of the capture of four residential halls and attack on JCD activists allegedly by the BCL (S-P).
