State Minister for Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Abdul Matin Khasru yesterday laid emphasis on ascertaining the causes of backwardness, woes and sufferings of women, reports UNB.

The government is determined to do something substantial for overall national development with equal participation of men and women, Khasru said.

Referring to the UN sponsored conferences for promoting and protecting women's rights, he said with the adoption of the convention on elimination of all forms of discrimination against women the global movement to protect human rights got a dissension. Referring to the plight and sufferings of thousands of Bangladesh women in Pakistani jails, the State Minister hoped that the workshop will come up with suggestions as to the modalities and mechanisms to assuage the sufferings of these women. "It must find out the areas of real need where we should devote our attention more."
