Kiwis in Mushie muddle

KAWALPINDI, Pakistan, Nov 28: New Zealand reached a fighting first innings score of 215 for eight thanks to an 81-run eighth-wicket stand between Stephen Fleming and skipper Lee Germon on the first day of the second Test today, reports Reuters.

The start of the match was delayed for 20 minutes because new balls had not arrived on time and 25 minutes more were wasted when Fleming protested that sun was disturbing his vision just after tea break.

When stumps were drawn, Germon was a gutsy 45 not out and Dipak Patel six not out as the tourists sought to complete a 2-0 series win over the home side after winning the first Test in Lahore earlier this week.

The day belonged to Pakistan's goosy specialist Mushtaq Ahmad and Test debutant Mohammad Zahid, who shared the eight wickets which fell.

Mushtaq took four of the five wickets which fell after lunch and finished the day with five for 73 in 26 overs.

Zahid, a 20-year-old right-arm fast medium bowler, claimed three for 51 and had two wickets in the space of seven deliveries before lunch.

Bryan Young and Justin Vaughan put on 33 for the opening wicket before the Kiwis collapsed to 111 for seven.

Young batted convincingly before Mushtaq had him leg before for 39, his 100th Test wicket, which included five MUSHTAQ... 5 for 73 boundaries.

Adam Parore went lbw to Zahid for three and then Mushtaq claimed the wickets of Nathan Astle and Mark Greatbatch as the tourists reeled at 87 for five.

Fleming and Chris Cairns, who had shared a decisive 141-run sixth wicket partnership in the first Test, brought the 100 up. But, with 110 on the board, Cairns was brilliantly caught at silly point by Mohammad Wasim off Mushtaq for nine.

One run later Zahid trapped Chris Harris leg before.

But Germon and Fleming stopped the collapse. Fleming was eventually bowled by Mushtaq for 67, including 11 fours, scored off 110 balls in 208 minutes.

An over before the close Germon was lucky when Saeed Anwar dropped him at the first slip off Salim Malik.

Sydney Test today

West Indies captain Courtney Walsh will be looking for a breakthrough at the Sydney Cricket Ground in 35 years when they meet the home side in the second Test of the Frank Worrell Trophy series starting today.

Hosts Australia are already one match up in the five Test rubber.

The tourists have won only two of their 12 Tests at the SCG and their task has been made no easier with expectations of a spinner's wicket.

Biggies beaten
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov 28: Crazier and Guarany, who finished first and second respectively in the first stage of the Brazilian Championship, were both soundly beaten in their quarterfinal, first leg games on Wednesday, reports Reuters.

A tired-looking Crazier, playing their 78th competitive game this year, were beaten 3-0 away by Portuguesa while Guarany lost 3-1 away to Goias.

Portuguesa, who sneaked into the last eight on Sunday when they won and the two teams above them both lost, dominated their game and could have added to their tally.

Guarani, where volatile president Beto Zini has made headlines by employing ten coaches this year, were sunk by two goals scored by Goias striker Alex. The second legs are at the weekend with aggregate score deciding the ties.

Indians fall into deep water

CALCUTTA, Nov 28: South African bowlers compensated for their batsmen's failures by sending India hurtling towards disaster in the second cricket Test at the Eden Gardens here today, reports AFP.

The South Africans, bowled out for 428 after earlier reaching 339 for two overnight, hit back to reduce India to 152 for six by close of the topsy-turvy second day's play.

Pace spearhead Allan Donald and seamer Brian McMillan grabbed two wickets each to leave India still needing 77 to save the follow on.

Worse still for India, frontline batsman Mohammad Azharuddin was injured when he was hit on the left elbow by a brute delivery from McMillan after making six.

But he was later declared fit to bat on Friday after X-rays revealed no broken bones.

India were 119 for six at one stage, but tailenders Javagal Srinath and Anil Kumble defied fading light to add 33 for the unbroken seventh wicket.

Batsmen's nerves cracked more than the easy-paced wicket as 14 wickets tumbled on the second day after just two had fallen on Wednesday.

South Africa's hopes of a 600-plus first innings score were dashed by seamer Venkatesh Prasad, who claimed a career-best six for 104.

Prasad, who removed centu-lion Andrew Hudson on the first day, removed five more batsmen as the South Africans lost their last eight wickets in the space of 82 runs to be all out 20 minutes after lunch.

The 24-year-old, who has only played in six Tests, took five for 76 against England at Lord's earlier this year.

India's latest opening pair of Nayan Mongia and Rahul Dravid put on 68 for the first wicket before both batsmen fell on either side of the tea interval.

Prasad earned three leg-before decisions from Sri Lankan umpire B.C. Cooray against Herschelle Gibbs (31), Brian McMillan (0) and Daryll Cullinan (43), although only the last one looked doubtful.

As Cullinan, who was dropped in the slips off Srinath earlier in the day, played back, Cooray upheld a stifled appeal from Prasad and wicket-keeper Nayan Mongia.

Prasad then bowled debutant Lance Klusener (10) and Pat Symcox (13) on either side of lunch and leg spinner Kumble worked through the tail to leave Dave Richardson stranded on 36 not out.

seven by lunch.
Prasad picked up four of those wickets with considerable seam movement as Srinath applied the brakes at the other end, conceding just eight runs in his first seven overs and claiming the wicket of Hansie Cronje.
