Hasina tells Bar Council members Govt pledge-bound to establish rule of law

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday said that her government was pledge-bound to establish rule of law in the country, reports BSS.

Talking to the members of a delegation of the Bangladesh Bar Council who met the Prime Minister at her office Sheikh Hasina said that her government believed in unfettered freedom of judiciary.

The Prime Minister, while talking about her government's commitment to separation of judiciary from the executives, said that works on the subject is going on.

Referring to the setting up of a permanent Law Commission the Prime Minister said that there laws should be made up-to-date and befitting to the needs of an independent country.

The Bar Council leaders, expressing their total solidarity with the need for necessary law reforms, assured the Prime Minister their best possible cooperation in this regard, particularly in the bid of the government to separate judiciary from the executives.

The Bar Council leaders apprised the Prime Minister of various issues relating to the legal profession as well as judicial department. The Prime Minister gave them a patient hearing of their problems and assured her cooperation to resolve those.

Attorney General Barrister K S. Nabi, Barrister Amir ul Islam, advocate Shamsul Haq Chowdhury, advocate S S Halder and advocate Sigma Huda were, among others, present on the occasion.

Youths should come to aid of common people: Hasina

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday laid stress on motivating and mobilising the youth to involve them in the nation building activities, reports BSS.

Addressing a function held to mark the 24th founding anniversary of Bangladesh Awami League and the 58th birth anniversary of its founder-chairman Sheikh Fazlul Haque Moni at the Engineers Institute in the city, she said the youth forces should come to the aid of the common people.

She said the Juba League was founded under the directive of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman to involve them in the national reconstruction work after the independence. She said the youth must win the hearts of the people and stand by them during their needs.

The Prime Minister told the Juba League workers to bear in mind that Awami League is in power now and people's expectations are high from them.
