BUENOS AIRES, Dec 5: The Supreme Court of justice in Buenos Aires on Wednesday once again denied soccer star Diego Maradona's request to do community services instead of serving prison sentence, reports Xinhua.

The highest provincial court denied a complaint appeal filed by the defence attorney for Maradona who was charged with shooting rubber bullets at journalists in February 1994. Hugo Wortman Joire, one of Maradona's lawyers, said that he will go to the Supreme Court of the nation as the last resort to prevent a jail sentence for Maradona.

Complaint appeals similar to this one filed by Maradona's defence attorney have been denied on three previous occa-

Fancied Iraq kicked off their Asian Cup football campaign with a 2-1 win over archrivals Iran in Zayed Sports City, Abu Dhabi, according to Star Sports monitored here last night.

The Iraqi's, who had a better share of the proceedings, were at one stage leading 2-0 before their neighbours pulled one goal back a few minutes from the final whistle from a penalty.

Saudis pounced, getting goals from Mehalel and Khalid al-Muwallid three minutes apart and lead 3-0 by the 18th minute.

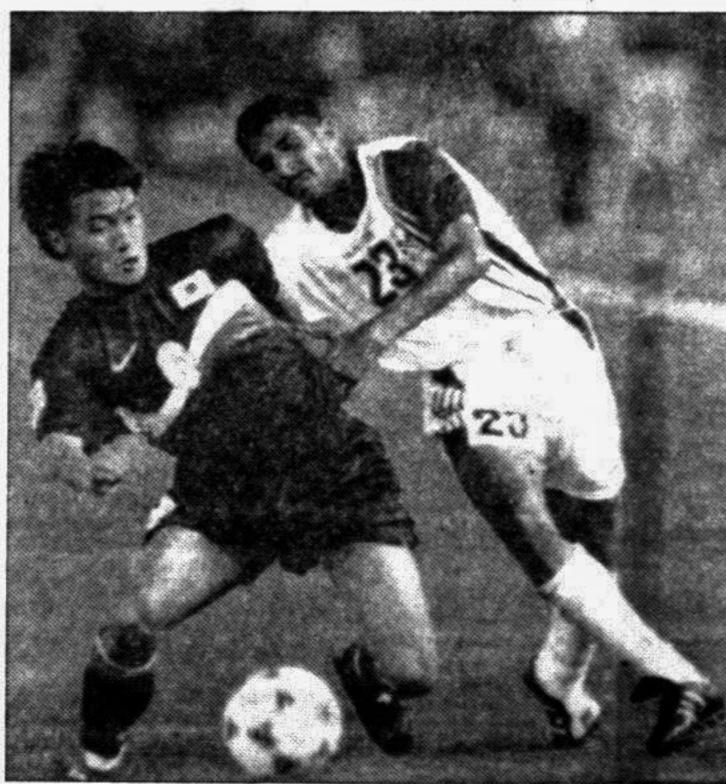

Al-Temawi added another penalty after Sami al-Jaber was hacked down in the 29th minute, and al-Jaber added his own in the 52nd before Mahalel completed the domination two minutes later.

Saudi Arabia's victory was even more impressive considering it played without three of what are considered its best players, including Saeed Owairan who scored what many considered to be the goal of the 1994 World Cup in a 1-0 victory over Belgium.

Owairan, Saleh al-Dawod and Fahd al-Ghesheyan were expelled from the national team after they were found at a party with women and alcohol.

Earlier on Wednesday, South Korea threatened to wreck the United Arab Emirate's 25th anniversary party to celebrate the country's creation before drawing 1-1 in the curtainraiser of the tournament.

Later on the day, Less favoured Indonesia, playing in their first-ever Asian Cup finals, held Kuwait to a 2-2 tie in their opening Group A match here on Wednesday.

CALCUTTA, Dec

A host of topranking players the world including five Grand Masters. will vie for top honours in the Commonwealth Open chess championship whi-ch was inaugurated at a colou-rful ceremony at the Netaji Indoor Stadium here yesterday, reports The West Bengal Chief Minister, Jvoti Basu, ceremo nially inaugurated the ten-day championship, being held in India for the first time, in pres ence of a large number of dignitaries. Local favourites. Dibyendu Baruah, Kevin Spragget (Canada). Tony Kosten (England). James Plaskett (England), and

Collin McNab (Scotland) were the five Grand Masters who have confirmed participation in the Rs 3,60,000 prize money Apart from the five Grand Masters, nine International

Masters and five International Women Masters were among the 40 competitors from nine countries who will be seen in action

India's Pravin Thipsay, D V Prasad, Lanka Ravi, R B Ramesh, P Konguveel, K Murugan, P Mitrakant, Watu Kobese (South Africa) and Ziaur Rahman (Bangladesh) were among the international masters to take part in the meet, the first round of the competition will begin from today.

Rani Hamid (Bangladesh). Bhagyashree Thipsay. Saritna Reddy. Anupuma Gokhle and S Vijay Lakshmi were the International Women Masters to be on view.

The focus will be on India's

Dibyendu Baruah (rating 2550) who will however, face stiff resistance from a few other players who have reformed quite creditably in recent tournaments and also have very good ratings. Baruah, gold medalist in Chess Olympiad in 1990, will face strong challenge from twotime champion Kevin Spragget of Canada who has a current rating of 2530. Spragget had won the Commonwealth chess title in 1984 and 1985, the only one to win twice ever since its inception in 1983

Scotland's Collin McNab (rating 2465), who had won the championship in 1992, will be another strong contender while Tony Kosten of England, who done reasonably well in the last Chess Olympiad, will surely make things difficult for his opponents. The championship, organ ised by the West Bengal Chess Association, will be played in Fide Swiss League system. Stewart Reuben, president of Commonwealth Chess Assoc iation, will conduct the tournament as chief arbiter

ROME, Dec 5: Former Italy captain Cesare Maldini will be the next national coach, Italian newspapers reported today, reports Reuter.

The three main daily sports papers all agreed that under-21 coach Maldini would fill the vacancy left by Arrigo Sacchi once the new federation (FIGC) chairman is elected on December 14.

The federation commissioner Rafaele Pagnozzi, running the FIGC in the absence of an elected chairman, and Luciano Nizzola, the man sure to take over, met on Wednesday night and the newspapers said they had agreed on Maldini. "Nizzola chooses Maldini.

declared Tuttosport. "Maldini the new coach. (Marco) Tardelli returns as his deputy," said the Corriere Dello Sport.

"It's decided. Maldini gets the national team," added the Gazzetta Dello Sport. "The announcement will be made after Nizzola is elected but the deal has been agreed.

Nizzola, saying he did not want to act as if he were chairman until actually elected, declined to give details on Wednesday but confirmed that an announcement would be made shortly after December 14 with no surprise names.

Maldini, father of Italy captain Paolo Maldini, has coached the under-21 team to three European titles and, despite failure at the Atlanta Olympics. has gained much prestige with impressive recent showings by his team.

Arambagh's fourth win

Arambagh Krira Sangha recorded their fourth win when they beat LEAGUE

East End Club 2-0 in their return leg encounter of the Danish Pre-mier Division football league at the Mirpur Stadium yesterday.

After a barren first half. skipper Roxy and Soaib scored one goal each to ensure their side a safe position among the relegation threatened teams in the elite group. With yesterday's win, Arambagh earned 15 points from 16 matches which kept them seventh in the ten-team league with a point lead over East End who suffered their eighth defeat yesterday and remained stuck to 14 points on completion of 16 matches. With both teams striving for a win to take their side in safe water from the relegation scare. the match remained barren in the first half.

However. Arambagh went all

Sports Reporter out in the second half and came off with two goals. Roxy, the inspirational midfielder, put his side ahead in the 47th minute cashing in on a Jahangir pass.

After 13 minutes, forward Soaib doubled the margin as he broke through the right wing and dodged past an advancing East End defender Badal before stabing the ball home with an angular shot (2-0).

After the goal. East End booters and officials encircled the referee and demanded cancellation of the goal claiming Soaib fouled Badal before scoring. But referee R Alam ruled out their appeal and compelled East End to return to the match after 15 minutes.

In the 87th minute, East End had had a chance to reduce the margin when they earned a penalty as Arambagh defender Faisal handled the ball inside the forbidden zone. But they spoiled the opportunity as Sourav Raju's spot-kick was brillianily taken by custodian Jamal diving on his left. Earlier in the 67th minute.

Arambagh defender Anwar received a marching order from the referee following his second bookable offence in the match. Yellow cards: Yusuf (1).

Hlasek humbles Pioline

MUNICH, Germany, Dec 5: Some players decided to skip the most lucrative tourna ment in the world.

Others showed up, only to lose quickly and hurry to their Christmas vacations with a fat check, reports AP. Not surprising then that the best performance of the day at the Grand Slam Cup Wednesday came from a man who expected to be enjoying his retirement.

Jakob Hlasek rallied to beat Cedric Pioline 2-6, 6-3, 6-4 and reached the quarterfinals of the 6 million dollars event, making 262,500 dollars in the process.

Hlasek was only an alternate for the event that brings together the 16 men with the best records in at the four Grand Slam events of the year — the Australian, French and US Opens and Wimbledon. The winner will get 1.625 million dollars. But with five players withdrawing, including No 1 Pete Sampras and No 2 Michael Chang, Hlasek got his chance and used it. "When I made the decision to

"I want to retire with a good feeling about my career and about my tennis. That's why right now I can still play great tennis, as I did today, and that's much more important to me than maybe another one or two vears on the tour.

Andre Agassi had a chance to salvage a pretty unremarkable year, but he didn't use it.

Having already started his Christmas vacation, Agassi made a brief appearance, offering little resistance in a 6-3, 6-4 loss to Mark Woodforde, who had failed to win a game in their last encounter and had never beaten Agassi in three previous matches.

The last time Agassi played Woodforde, he beat the Australian doubles specialist 6-0, 6-0. But that was two years ago. in Vienna, and Agassi has done little since reaching the semifinals at the US Open in the first week of September, His record since then is 2-4.

Two weeks ago, he showed up at the ATP Tour World Championship in Hanover, Germany, lost to Pete Sampras 6-2, 6-1, and then dropped out, claiming to be sick.

Goran Ivanisevic, the defending champion, had more problems fighting a virus than battling his opponent. Mikaei Tillstrom, also an alternate. and fired 18 aces in a 6-4, 6-2

Yevgeny Kafelnikov, the French Open champion, defeated Alex Corretja, another alternate, 6-4, 7-6 (7-3).

In Thursday's two quarterfinals. Boris Becker plays Hla sek, while Tim Henman faces MaliVai Washington. On Friday, Ivanisevic meets Woodforde and Jim Courier battles Kafelnikov.
