bandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman rising above all political opinions", the minister told a discussion meeting on "Bangladesh Liberation Forces" (BLF) popularly known as Mujib Bahini. Mukti Joddher Chetna Monch organised the discussion at the TSC crossing.

Prof Abdul Mannan Chowdhury, advocate Sayed Ahmed, Hasanul Haque Inu, Mainuddin Khan Badal, Nurul Alam, Akteruzzaman, Hasanuzzaman Mani, Khaliquzzaman Chowdhury and Siddikur Rahman spoke on the occasion.

The speakers at another discussion meeting observed that the true history of the country was not reflected in the films of Bangladesh during the last 21 years.

Organised by Union of University Film Societies the discussion meeting on "Films on Liberation War and Liberation war in Films" was held at the TSC premises.

The speakers observed that a certain political quarter prevented the film producers from depicting the true history of the liberation war in films.

Nure Alam Siddiqui, Enamul Haq Shamim, Nurul Islam, Sadiqur Rahman Parag and Asalam Khan addressed the meeting presided over by Hasan Arif.

Kulaura now pourashava

The government in a gazette notification on December 5 has elevated Kulaura thana sadar under Moulvibazar district, to the status of pourashava. The LGRD and Cooperatives Minister, Zillur Rahman, is expected to lay the foundation stone of the new building of the Kulaura pourashava some time this month, according to a press release, reports BSS.

A documentary film 'Chironeeb Mujib' and a feature film 'Megher Anek Rong' were screened after the discussion meeting.

A five-day-long programme on patriotic songs and dances was inaugurated yesterday at the Shilpkala Academy auditorium. On the first day artistes Anwar Uddin Khan, Hasina Moni, Khurshid Alam, Junuman Ara Begum, Jinat Rehana, Khondkar Faruq Ahmed, Mousum Kabir and others rendered songs. Subol Dotta played violin.

State Minister for Information Abu Sayeed at another discussion meeting yesterday said tion in the cultural and economic fields".

Elaborating, he said: "The PM blamed late president Ziaur Rahman for rehabilitating Rajakars. 'What's a blatant lie! People of the world know that it was her father, Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, who rehabilitated the Rajakars'.

During the last general elections, they (the AL leaders) committed 'munaqqa' of the highest order while begging votes with caps on heads, 'tashbis' in hands, tears in eyes and seeking pardon for their past misdeeds", Badruddoza Chowdhury said.

"The polls over, they forged unity with autocrat Ershad and the lone MP from the JSD in the name of forming a government of consensus. On return to power, the party has gone back to its old practices of repressing the opponents and distorting the history."
