HC issues rule nisi on five secretaries

The High Court Tuesday issued a rule nisi on four secretaries and one additional secretary to the government to explain within six weeks why the pay scale of some 26 deputy directors and assistant directors of the Rural Electrification Board REB should not be upgraded to the wage scale of executive engineers and assistant engineers.
A High Court Division Bench comprising Justice Mohammad Mozammel Haq and Justice Mohammad Abdul Matin Tuesday issued the rule nisi on the secretary of the ministry of finance, secretary of the ministry of establishment, secretary of the cabinet division, the principal secretary to the prime minister and an additional secretary of the ministry of finance. Implementation branch-1
Four deputy directors and assistant directors of the REB filed a writ against a government order in the writ they said that they should get a pay scale of Tk 6300-8050, enjoyed by executive and assistant engineers of the same organization. They argued that the ranks of executive and assistant engineers were equal to those of deputy and assistant directors respectively.
They further argued that the implementation branch of the finance ministry upgraded the pay scale of the executive and assistant engineers of the REB on November 12, 1995 while the pay scale of deputy and assistant directors was not upgraded, creating a discrimination in wage.
