Jessore jail revolt

WTN alleges BTW

By Staff Correspondent

The Worldwide Television News (WTN) yesterday alleged that Bangladesh Television (BTW) did not transmit its visuals on the recent incidents in Jessore Jail, covered from outside the jail.

"Just after the satellite alignments were set up by BTW for transmission of the visuals, and when WTN's arrangement through British Telecom was completed, a BTW official, whose designation was not known, ruled that transmission cannot take place", said a WTN press release yesterday.

WTN claimed that it's visuals had no controversial information, the press release said.

BOU seminar on urbanisation held

A seminar on 'Urbanisation: its extent and impact on Bangladesh Economy' sponsored by the Open School of Bangladesh Open University was held at Gazipur campus Sunday, says a press release.

Speaking at the seminar Vice-Chancellor Professor M Aminul Islam said, it is fact that urbanisation is hastening the growth of economy, but it has its adverse effect on ecology and nature and we are being faced with Green House effect. He stressed the need for holding more such seminars and research work on the subject.

Mohammad Ekramul Huq and Delwar Akram, lecturers of BOU presented keynote papers on the subject.

Report on sample survey of child labour published

Report on national sample survey of child labour in Bangladesh, 1995-96 has been published, reports UNB.

The national sample survey of child labour in Bangladesh is the first ever comprehensive survey on this subject conducted by Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics, says a PID handout. The report presents detailed information on the size and composition of child labour in large industry and occupation, cross-classified by urban and rural areas.

The information in the report will help to have a clear view of the child labour situation in the country.
