Sarbahara Party leader held

Police in a pre-dawn raid arrested a ring leader of the outlawed Sarbahara Party from the city Tuesday, reports UNB.

CID and Kotwali police conducted a joint operation at Kayetuli in the old part of the city and picked up Sarbahara Party leader Shah Alam Sikder.

According to officials, a CID Inspector in Patuakhali, Arun Kumar Bala, unearthed his whereabouts in the city and arrested him from a hair dresser at about 1 am.

Police said Shah Alam Sikder along with his associates was unleashing a reign of terror in southern, Galachipa, Dashmina and Bauphal of Patuakhali and in Barguna.

They were involved in various notorious acts like murder, dacoity and extortion.

Police action near Jatiya Press Club condemned

Jatiya Press Club president Reaz Uddin Ahmed and general secretary Monirul Haq condemned the police action near the Press Club while dispersing BNP activists Tuesday afternoon, reports UNB.

In a statement, they said the club management committee expected from all sections of society and the government and the administration a tolerant attitude towards the Jatiya Press Club.

Call to curtail defence expenditure

Speakers at a seminar organised by Department of International Relations of Dhaka University urged countries like Bangladesh, Sri Lanka and Nepal to take the initiative in resolving outstanding problems between the two main antagonists, India and Pakistan. They also called upon these states to take lead in curtailing the defence expenditure and channel scarce resources for human development, says a press release.

The seminar was addressed by Prof Syed Sikander Mehdi of Karachi University. Prof Mehdi stated that new wisdom is required for confidence and cooperation building in the interest of relationships in South Asia. He also said that 50 per cent of the world's poor live in South Asia, where defence spending has continued to rise unabated.

Among others professors Akmal Hossain, Ramjul Huq and M Shahiduzzaman and Ambassador M Shamsul Alam participated in the discussions.

The session was chaired by Dr C R. Ahrar, chairperson of the Department. Dr Ahrar in his concluding remarks stated that civil society in South Asian states has begun to assert itself, challenging the status-quo. He also called for increased co-operation between scholars to analyze sources of conflict and offer non-military alternatives for the resolution of such conflicts.
