BCB U-16 take on Calcutta Mayor's XI today

Sports Reporter
The Bangladesh Cricket Board under 16 team will take on Calcutta Mayor's Eleven in their opening first round group clash of the invitational international junior cricket tournament at the Calcutta Oxford Mission ground this morning.

Total eight teams including England and South Africa are participating in the tournament organised by the Calcutta City Corporation.

South Africa and England are the other two team grouped with Bangladesh for the first round. In their next engagement, Bangladesh will face South Africa at the CCF ground while their last match will be against England in Shilliguri on January 8.

The final of the meet will be held in Calcutta on January 15 at the Tala Park ground.

Besides, Bangladesh will play a friendly match against England at Diamond Harbour on January 11.

Windies-Pak tie today
Injury niggles fast guns

SYDNEY, Jan 2: The West Indian cricket team enters the new year with considerable optimism only two weeks after brose are also doubtful for the next matches.

Stuart was named in the Australian side for Sunday's one-day international against West Indies in Brisbane as a replacement for Paul Reiffel, who pulled a hamstring during Wednesday's loss to Pakistan.

So far this season Australia has lost fast bowlers Craig McDermott, Damien Fleming, Jason Gillespie and Reiffel to injuries.

The 27-year-old Stuart played for Australia against Pakistan last week and topped the domestic first class bowling averages last season in his first year at New South Wales with 25 wickets at 13.40.

Ambrose, man-of-the-match with nine wickets in West Indies' six-wicket win over Australia in the third Test last week, has hamstring trouble, while Waqar missed Wednesday's one-day win over Australia with a sore shoulder.

West Indies also have concerns over batsman Shivnarine Chanderpaul. The Guyanese left-hander had a wisdom tooth removed three days ago and is still weak from not being able to eat solids.

Young paceman Nixon McLean is also recovering from a groin injury.

West Indies skipper Courtney Walsh said he would let Ambrose decide on whether he plays. Ambrose bowled for about 30 minutes at medium pace at training today.

"As far as I'm concerned I'm going to leave it in his hands as to how he feels," said Walsh. "I know that he would want to play because he knows the situation of the tournament, the way it's poised and his own form. He's now coming back into top form and while you are doing that you want to play."

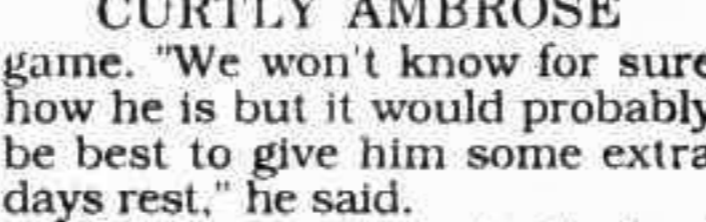

"My only concern is that the injury doesn't get worse," Walsh said Chanderpaul was in the same boat. "Chanderpaul is still weak after two days in bed", he said.

Pakistan physio Dan Kiesel said in all likelihood Waqar would be rested from Friday's game. "We won't know for sure how he is but it would probably be best to give him some extra days rest," he said.

Pakistan and Australia lead the series with two wins each from West Indies, who beat Pakistan last month in their only win of the series to date. The West Indians back up against Australia here on Sunday.

Wanderers, Azad win

Sports Reporter
Dhaka Wanderers Club and Azad Sporting Club won their respective First Division cricket league matches held in different venues of the city yesterday.

At the City Club ground, an all-round performance by Pakistani Sagir Abbas guided Dhaka Wanderers to a 40-run win over Bangladesh Boys Club.

Batting first, Dhaka Wanderers scored 194 for nine in their stipulated 45 overs with Sagir hammering highest 90 off 82 balls including four sixes and five fours.

In reply, Bangladesh Boys were bundled out for 154 in 44.2 overs because of some brilliant bowling by Sagir who captured four wickets conceding only 20 runs in 8.2 overs.

In the days other match, Azad Sporting Club beat City Club by only seven runs at the Jagannath Hall ground.

Bailey changes his tune

TORONTO, Jan 2: Olympic 100-metre champion Donovan Bailey says he plans to defend his title at the 2000 Summer Games in Sydney, Australia, reports AP.

The 29-year-old Canadian had said previously that he didn't see himself sticking around for another Olympic cycle, but his plans appear to have changed.

"There's still a lot left," he said Tuesday. "I still pursue the dream of running a perfect race, or a race with the least amount of mistakes."

While Bailey has been winning most of the major year-end awards in Canada, including the Lionel Conacher Award as male athlete of the year in the annual poll by The Canadian Press, he didn't receive a single vote in The Associated Press' athlete-of-the-year poll of US sports writers and broadcasters.

Olympic 200 and 400-metre champion Michael Johnson of the United States won the AP award.

"That's just the total ignorance of Americans", Bailey said of his exclusion from the AP vote. "They think they're the world."

"They don't know what's going on in the rest of society. It doesn't matter what those guys think. In Canada, they understand the impact of what I did and what my teammates did."

"It probably motivates me even more to beat them (the Americans) at the major championships. I think what we have to do is keep hammering them every day. Sometimes when you get punched a couple of times, you can get up, especially when the puncher is not around. We have the confidence we can continue to do it."

Besides winning the Olympic sprint in world-record time, Bailey teamed with Bruny Surin, Glenroy Gilbert and Robert Esmie to win the 400-metre relay.

Bailey said his goals for 1997 include setting a world record with his relay partners, lowering his own world mark and breaking the Canadian record in the 200 metres. The 1997 World Championships are scheduled for Athens, Greece, in August.

Robson banks on Ronaldo

MADRID, Spain, Jan 2 (AP): Bobby Robson isn't taking any chances.

Even on the last, cold, rainy day of 1996, Barcelona's English coach dragged out his team's best hope to snatch the league leadership away from Real Madrid this weekend, and ran Ronaldo through the paces.

"Even the masseur is training; he's punished too," Ronaldo joked as the TV cameras and several hundred fans watched Robson, two trainers and Barcelona teammates. Emmanuel Anzures jogged across the field in the special workout.

Expectations are high for the 20-year-old Brazilian's performance this Saturday when Barcelona goes to Deportivo de La Coruna. Both sides trail Real by two points, with three points awarded for a win in the Spanish First Division.

But controversial warnings from a Brazilian physical therapist who treated Ronaldo two weeks ago in Rio de Janeiro are causing commotion in soccer circles.

"If Ronaldo doesn't follow a specific programme of physical preparation, his muscles could pop," the therapist, Nilton Petrone, told the sports daily Mundo Deportivo in an interview published Thursday.

Ronaldo, just one goal behind the league's top scorer Davor Suker of Real Madrid, isn't being given the extra warm-ups or stretching he needs for the icy, soggy winter Spain is undergoing, Petrone said.

"I was able to check his condition when he was at my clinic, and the latest news I'm receiving isn't good at all," he told the Barcelona-based daily.

Robson also faces the loss this round of Ronaldo's countryman Giovanni, who has six goals this season and strained a muscle in Monday's team practice.

Deportivo's Welsh coach John Toshack is mulling over whether to debut his side's new Brazilian acquisitions, Ronaldo and Conceicao, against Barcelona, the Madrid sports daily Marca reported. Deportivo are already the Spanish team who play the most foreigners, including Brazilians Mauro Silva and Donato.

Real Madrid, meanwhile, will likely need a win in their home game on Sunday against seventh-place Athletic de Bilbao to hold onto the lead in the 18th round of the 42-round season.

Defending champion Atletico de Madrid, ten points off the pace in fifth place, should have a easy time Sunday at last-place Extremadura, who have one victory so far.

Other Sunday matchups: Hercules vs Sporting de Gijon, Rayo Vallecano vs Sevilla, Oviedo vs Logrones, Espanyol vs Compostela, Racing de Santander vs Tenerife, and Real Sociedad vs Zaragoza.

Saturday's second game is Celta vs Valladolid, and fourth-place Betis host Valencia on Monday.

THE MAESTRO AND HIS ORCHESTRA: A spectator urging his fellows to cheer in unison as South African batsman Gary Kirsten approaches his century on the first day of the second Test against India at Newlands, Capetown yesterday.

Kirsten carves fourth ton

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Jan 2: South Africa were 280 for four and in a strong position at the close of the first day of the second Test against India today, reports AP.

South Africa were helped not only by a superb 103 by opening batsman Gary Kirsten and sparkling 77 by middle-order batsman Daryll Cullinan, but also by some sloppy fielding and poor close-to-the-wicket catching by India.

Kirsten, who scored his fourth Test century and his second against India, was dropped on naught by Mohammad Azharuddin in the slips, and then on 10 by Anil Kumble in the gully.

On both occasions the bowler was Venkatesh Prasad, the tall swing bowler who managed to retain his composure and line and length to finish the day with figures of 20-1-74-2. Both his victims, Andrew Hudson (16) and Cullinan (77) were caught behind by wicket-keeper Nayan Mongia.

When stumps were drawn after the regulation 90 overs, South African Capt. Hansie Cronje and allrounder Brian McMillan were not out on 35 and 13 respectively.

Now after the 328-run demolition of India in Durban in less than three days, South Africa hope to amass as many runs as possible to put themselves in an unbeatable position and take a 2-0 lead in the three-Test home series.

South African opener Gary Kirsten acknowledges the crowd's applause after scoring a hundred against India during first day's play of the second Test in Cape Town yesterday.

Henman moves into qtrs

DOHA, Jan 2: British tennis number one Tim Henman eased through into the quarterfinals here on Wednesday beating Tamer El Sawy of Egypt 6-3, 6-2 in the 625,000-dollar ATP tournament, reports AFP.

Henman, who beat El Sawy in their Davis Cup tie last year, easily disposed of the 149th ranked Egyptian taking the first set in only 31 minutes. El Sawy had put out the third seed Jan Siemerink of the Netherlands in the first round.

Morocco's Hicham Arazi celebrated a good win with a 2-6, 7-5, 7-5 win over Patrick McEnroe, who was playing his first match on the circuit since suffering a shoulder injury in March 1996.

Arazi will face Gustafsson's hardhitting compatriot Magnus Larsson who disposed of another Swede Patrik Fredriksson 6-4, 7-6 (7/4).

Crowd, cause of concern

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan 2: Several Pakistan cricketers were racially abused during Wednesday's World Series limited-over match between the visitors and Australia at the Sydney Cricket Ground, officials said Thursday, report agencies.

Police arrested eight men for unlawfully entering the playing field — including one man who slid stomach-down into the stumps — and removed 86 spectators for inappropriate behaviour.

Another six spectators — 40,000 attended the match — were arrested on charges including offensive behaviour, assaulting police and resisting arrest, a police spokeswoman said.

Australian Cricket Board officials said they were investigating claims that some of Pakistan's players — their identities were not disclosed — had been verbally abused by the crowd.

Australian captain Mark Taylor was run out moments after the first fan ran on to the field in the fifth over of the match.

"I think everyone has been disappointed at various times with crowds elsewhere and we seem to be following suit," Taylor said Thursday. "It's not a good advertisement for Australian cricket."

Pakistan skipper Wasim Akram said it was the first time he had experienced such crowd trouble in Australia.

"Hopefully it will be better next time," he said.

Police said Thursday that they were reviewing whether fines for unruly behaviour at the ground be increased. The fine for entering the playing field at Australian 1,000 dollars (US 800 dollars).

Meanwhile, two policemen who danced the "macarena" in front of a sell-out crowd delighted spectators but not their superiors, who today expressed disapproval.

While the crowd obviously enjoyed the spontaneity of their response, the actions of the two officers are not something that the police service would encourage," chief superintendent Darcy Cluff said.

The two young women were standing in the middle of the ground as part of a strong police presence to prevent spectators running into the playing surface during the dinner break in the match.

A band set up on the field finished its act with a rendition of the worldwide hit "macarena," and as the crowd began to join in they noticed the two young policemen performing a perfect routine of the dance.

Roars of approval soon turned to boos, as a senior policeman moved into tap the girls on the shoulder and top the impromptu dance session.

However, the band members came to the rescue, jumping off a stage and racing over to flank the policemen and re-start the action. This time, even the senior colleague clapped as the crowd erupted into wild cheers and applause.

Despite his disapproval, Cluff said the officers would not be officially disciplined and that their actions were being viewed in the spirit in which the dancing was intended.

The chief superintendent also criticised the handful of fans who ran on to the pitch during the match.

One crash-tacked the stumps, a striker ran on wearing not a stitch, and another fleet-footed man managed to grab the ball before racing off, nearly making it back to the barrier and safety.

Police tut-tutted that continual interruptions spoiled the match to some extent, but the antics came as light relief to Aussie fans after their team was bowled out by Pakistan for 199 in 47.1 overs.

Pakistan eventually thrashed the Aussies, reaching 203 for six with the luxury of 27 balls to spare.

CHITTAGONG, Jan 2: A four-day Chittagong divisional women sports competition began at the Dampara Police Lines ground here today, reports BSS.

Chittagong District Women Sports Association became champion in athletics on the opening day earning 40 points while Chandpur won the runners-up trophy collecting 34 points.

Nina Parveen and Fatma Khatun of Chittagong earned individual championship and runner-up trophy bagging 15 and 13 points respectively.

One hundred participants from eleven districts are participating in the competition.
