Bangladeshi student honoured in US

Talita Choudhury, a senior at Mount Holyoke College and a resident of Dhaka has joined the elite group of students selected by the 1997 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES.

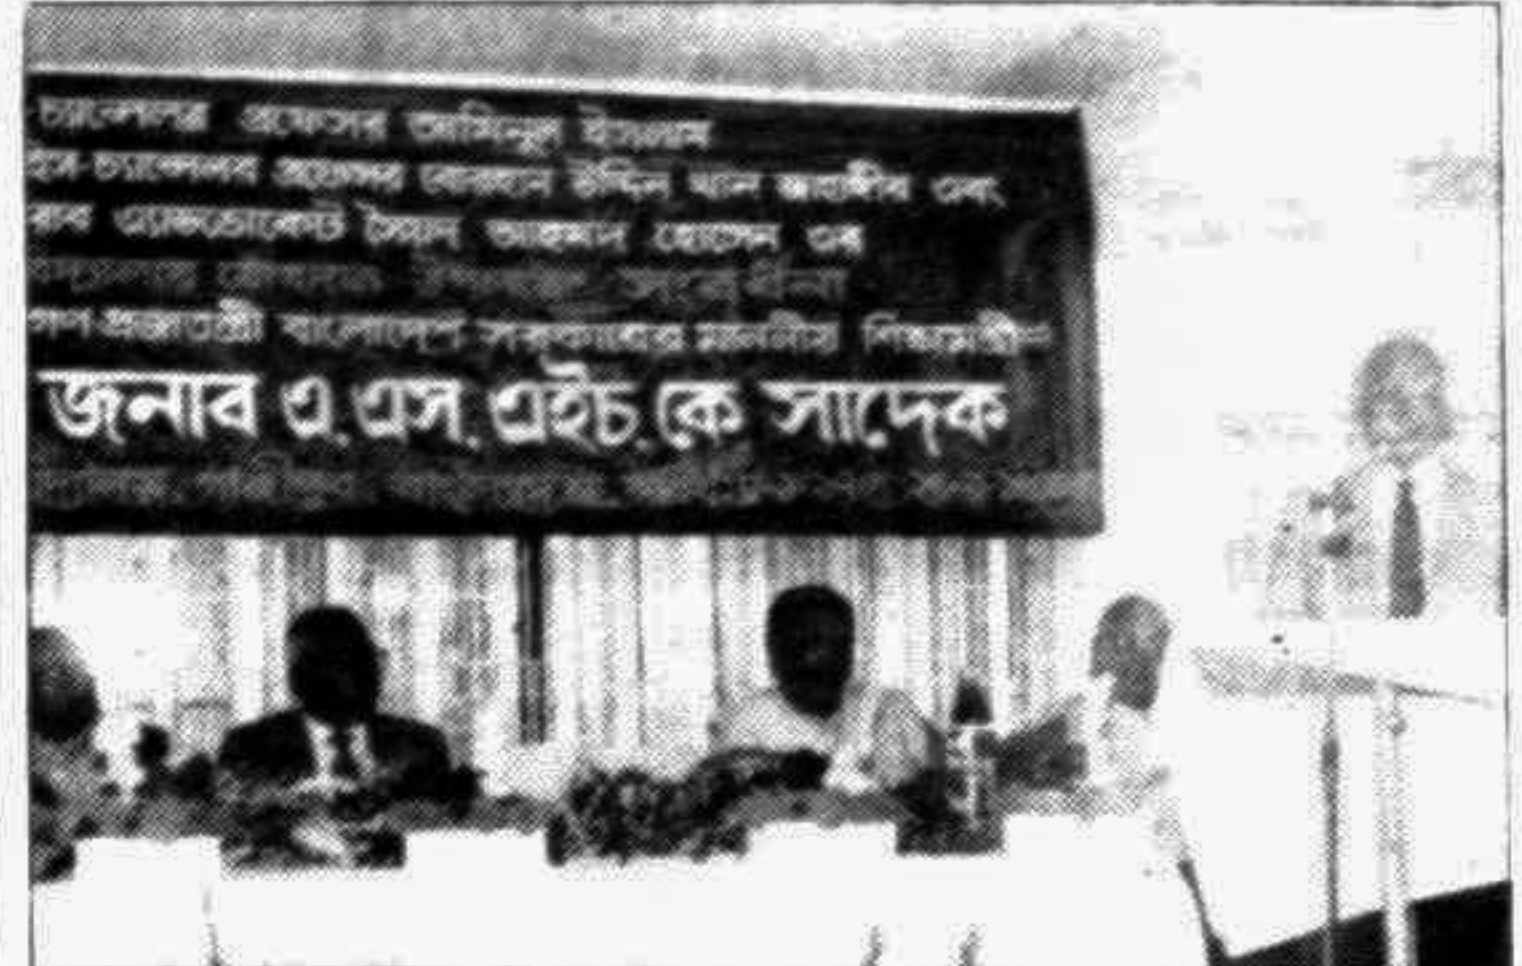

She is the daughter of Mrs. Lubna Choudhury (Principal B.I.T of Dhaka and Nizam A. Choudhury).

Campus nominating committees and editors of WHO'S WHO named Talita and 40 other Mount Holyoke students to this national list of outstanding student leaders.

Students included in this annual directory were selected on the basis of academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extra-curricular activities and potential for continued success. Students were drawn from more than 1,900 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honoured in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

Mount Holyoke College, located in the heart of New England, is a preeminent liberal arts college for women founded in 1837. It is the oldest continuing institution of higher education for women in the US. February 28, 1997 marks the 200th birthday of the College's founder Mary Lyon, who was a pioneer for the education of women worldwide. S-32
