Call to try collaborators of '71 reiterated

Prominent cultural personalities yesterday expressed their optimism that the present government would hold trials of the collaborators of 1971 as "it would bear the spirit of the Liberation War," reports BSS.

They were addressing the inaugural session of the fifth founding anniversary and fourth national conference of Ekatturer Ghatok Dalal Nirmul Committee in the city yesterday. Air Vice Marshal (ret'd) A K Khandaker presided over the session.

Poet Shamsur Rahman, and litterateur Shaikat Usman addressed the session, while poet Sufia Kamal and Prof Kabir Chowdhury sent messages as they could not attend due to ill health.

In her message, poet Sufia Kamal prayed to Almighty Allah for the success of the movement being carried out by the Nirmul Committee.

Poet Shamsur Rahman said the movement of the Nirmul Committee demanding trial of the collaborators during the Liberation War could not be successful because of the previous government which was averted to try them.

Prof Shaikat Usman laid emphasis on carrying out the movement for upholding the spirit of the Liberation War.

The inaugural session was addressed, among others, by Maolana Abdul Awal, Shaikat Ali and Prof Mannan Chowdhury.

A rally was brought out by Ekatturer Ghatok Dalal Nirmul Committee marking its 5th founding anniversary and 4th national conference in the city yesterday. — Star photo

Govt urged to relocate BDR HQ outside city

Haji Mohammad Selim, a Treasury Bench member from Dhaka, yesterday appealed to the government to relocate the Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) headquarters from city's Pilkhana area to somewhere outside the Dhaka Metropolis, reports BSS.

Haji Selim, who was taking part in a short discussion on his notice which was rejected by the Speaker, argued that the BDR headquarters should be immediately shifted to outside Dhaka as it is causing untold sufferings for the dwellers of the old city, including traffic jams.

He also demanded that the present Central Jail, which is also situated in the midst of the old city, should be immediately shifted to outside Dhaka for better accommodation of the inmates and also in greater interest of the city dwellers.
