Roger Tose

(Briton-turned-Kiwi cricketer)

"I prefer to teach kids to play indoor cricket and I will never play in Tests again. I am worn out by all the internal wrangles and all the back biting. I have never seen anything like the bickering that went on in their dressing room.... I don't want to know anymore"

(Said of his decision to quit Kiwi Test side)

Dorre wins Osaka women's marathon

OSAKA, Japan, Jan 26: Veteran German runner Katrin Dorre, surging ahead in the last six kilometres (3.6 miles), won the 1997 Osaka International Women's Marathon on Sunday, finishing ahead of her closest rival by almost one minute, reports AP.

The 35-year-old Dorre, who placed fourth in the Atlanta Olympics last summer, was timed at two hours, 25 minutes, 57 seconds, covering the 42.195-kilometre (26-mile, 285-yard) through the streets of Osaka in western Japan.

It was Dorre's fourth victory in this race, following her victory last year.

Mariko Hara, 26, of Japan came in second in 2:26.54, followed by Lidia Simon of Romania in 2:27.04. Ren Xiujuan of China in 2:28.54 and Hiroko Nomura of Japan in 2:29.26.

"Today I was just hoping to stay with the top group," said Dorre after winning the race. "It was a difficult race because of strong winds."

Hara and Esther Kiplagat of Kenya initially took the lead after 22 kilometres (13.2 miles), pulling away from Dorre and seven other runners. Kiplagat later dropped out from the race.

But Dorre caught Hara after 30 kilometres (18 miles), running shoulder to shoulder with Hara before making a spurt at the 36 kilometre (21.6 mile) point. She kept the lead to win the race.

Valentina Egorova, 32, of Russia, a silver medalist at the Atlanta Olympics, withdrew from the race after 34 kilometres (20.4 miles).

A total of 286 runners competed in clear and windy 10-degree Celsius (50 F) weather.

Abahani's day of delight

Sports Reporter

Accurate bowling and tight fielding inspired Abahani Krira Chakra to achieve twin targets in a day as the popular title-aspirants grounded new levathan Kalabagan Krira Chakra by 128 in their Premier Super league opener at the Dhaka Stadium yesterday. Defending a rather inadequate looking total of 218, the five-pronged seam attack of Abahani shot their Dhanmondi neighbours out for a meagre 90 in 30.3 overs to exact a very fitting revenge of their first round loss to the same team besides steadying the flickering flame of their hopes for regaining the Premier league title.

The defeat, however, put Kalabagan at quite a bit of disadvantage. They have stumbled at the very onset of their super league campaign after having finished atop the table along with Brothers Union and Bangladesh Biman on completion of the eleven match-a-team first round. They are now sharing the second position with Abahani, both having collected 18 points from 12 outings. While Brothers Union and Bangladesh Biman jointly share the top spot with 20 points each.

Returning to action from the world of competitive statistics, Abahani bowlers backed by some inspired fielding, did really well to dismiss Kalabagan for their lowest total this season.

Jahangir Talukder Dulu, the energetic seasoned campaigner whose career as a new-ball bowler seems to have hit the purple patch this season, gave Abahani a flying start along with young Rahat when they removed the first three Kalabagan wickets for almost nothing.

After Rahat had sent opener Atiar on his way for a duck in the second over, Dulu with his nagging medium pace dismissed Harun-ur Rashid Liton and one-down Moniruzzaman Moni in successive overs, leaving Kalabagan reeling at 20 for three in 8.5 overs.

The left-arm seamer with a rather checkered past of being in and out of the national team, pinned down the Kalabagan batsmen in his 'marathon' 10-over spell from the Paltan end, and returned a highly commendable analysis of 10-4-13-2.

Things turned from bad to worse for Kalabagan when Zakir took two wickets in the span of three deliveries. Coming in as a first change bowler in the 14th over, the young right-arm seamer, struck with his very first ball by clean bowling Jewel Hossain Moni for 10. He then dismissed Zakaria Intiaz, who was bowled offering no stroke to a fine delivery that broke back quite sharply from outside the off stump to disturb the furniture of the arm-shoulder.

Ajax ride on Rafiqul

BRIEF SCORES

AJAX SC: 231 for eight in 45 overs ( Rafiqul Islam 82, Maqsood Raja 40, Shariful Islam 33; Shaheen Ahmed 4/37, Aasim Rizvi 3/34)

GOPIBAGH FA: 192 for eight in 45 overs ( Sentu 35, Aasim Rizvi 49, Babu 37 n.o; Aminul Islam Bhola 2/29, Ripon Sarkar 2/38, Haider 2/39)

A brilliant half-century by opener Rafiqul Islam Khan helped Ajax Sports Club to an impressive 39-run win over Gopibagh Friends Association in a First Division cricket league match at the City Club ground yesterday.

Rafiqul scored a dazzling 82 off 102 balls embellished with a quartet of fours to lay a solid foundation for his side's huge total of 321 in their share of 45 overs. He shared 80 runs for the first wicket with Shariful before the latter departed for a patient 33 off 50 balls.

Rafiqul then added another 56 runs with Pakistani Maqsood Raja for the third wicket before being out 18 runs short of what would have been a well-deserved century. Meanwhile, Maqsood contributed 40 runs to the winners' commanding total.

For Gopibagh Shaheen and Pakistani Aasim Rizvi shared 50 runs for the fourth wicket. Shaheen finished with four for 27 from his quota of eight overs while Aasim took three for 34 in his five expensive overs.

In reply, Gopibagh could muster 192 exhausting their quota of 45 overs. Opener Sentu scored a sedate 35 off 73 balls while Rizvi, who shared 71 runs for the second wicket with Sentu, top-scored with a gritty 49. On the other hand, lower-order bat Babu buckled down to fight a lost battle with an unbeaten 37.

Among the Ajax bowlers Bhola, Maqsood Raja and Ripon evened shared six wickets.

BU fined

The disciplinary committee of the Bangladesh Cricket Board has fined Brothers Union Tk. 50,000 and cautioned the club for the unruly behaviour of its officials and fans during a Premier cricket league match on Thursday, reports UNB.

The decision was taken yesterday at a disciplinary committee of the board after the violence took place following the dismissal of Brothers' Pakistani batsman Amir Hanif in the match against Mohammedan SC at the Dhaka Stadium.

Warning Hanif for his misconduct, the committee asked him to seek apology within 48 hours.

The committee also cautioned the match conducting umpires for their delay in submitting the report and directed all the umpires of the super and relegation league to submit their reports to CDDM by 8 pm on the same day.

A clean year for China

BEIJING, Jan 26: Not a single Chinese athlete tested positive for illegal drugs at the Olympics or at any other international or domestic competitions in 1996, the director of the Chinese Anti-Doping Committee said Sunday, reports AP.

Chinese sports officials have long strongly denied foreign allegations that drugs and steroids have played an important role in China's sporting successes in recent years.

China conducted 2,080 doping tests last year, a 9 per cent increase from 1,914 tests in 1995, the state-run Xinhua News Agency reported. Of the total, 1,115 were out-of-competition tests.

The out-of-competition tests focused mainly on track and field and swimming. Most top athletes in these sports were tested more than three times last year, the report quoted Yuan Weimin, the anti-doping committee director, as saying.

Seven Chinese swimmers were banned for failing drug tests just before the Asian Games in Hiroshima in 1994, and China was excluded from the 1995 Pan Pacific swimming championships in Atlanta because of doping suspicions.

Crafty Cs stymie babes

PRETORIA, Jan 26: Daryll Cullinan and skipper Hansie Cronje saved South Africa's blushes here on Saturday by piling on a record 123 runs for the fifth wicket to steer their side to victory in the triangular limited over tournament clash against Zimbabwe at Centurion Park, reports AFP.

South Africa, who were given a mighty jolt by the visitors at the start of their innings, comfortably won the match by five wickets with 23 balls to spare.

But the picture had looked very different when they began their chase for the 212 target set them by Zimbabwe on a hard, grassless batting pitch that gave bowlers little assistance.

After just two overs, South Africa were reeling at seven for three as Zimbabwe's new ball pairing of Eddo Brandes and John Rennie claimed the scalps of Andrew Hudson for a duck, paceman Lance Klusener for one and the other opener Gary Kirsten for four.

With Craig Matthews out — and unlikely to bat — with a ruptured ankle tendon, they were actually four down and a modest chase of 212 suddenly a tall order.

Jonny Rhodes joined Cullinan in getting the innings back on course, however, before Rhodes slashed a head-high catch to Zimbabwe skipper Alastair Campbell at gully with his score on 16.

Joined by Cronje, the inform Cullinan stroked his way to a half century off 69 deliveries. The South African skipper also dug in to reach his 50 off 95. Both struck only three boundaries along the way.

Cullinan, who scored a century in the third Test against India last week, fell 23 runs later, but with Cronje being dropped by keeper Andy Flower on 62 and Shaun Pollock given a life by Grant Flower on 3, Zimbabwe had missed their chance.

Ultimately, however, they will also have to point fingers at a betting line-up, which apart from opener Grant Flower's splendid 90 and a swashbuckling 39 from Paul Strang, failed to spark into life.

Virtually unbeatable on home soil, South Africa, who beat India by 39 runs in the first match of the tournament in Bloemfontein on Thursday, are now strong favourites to reach the final of the three-nation series.

Auckland Test nicely poised

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Jan 26: New Zealand captain Lee Gernon says his team can still win the opening cricket Test against England, despite appearances to the contrary after three days, report agencies.

The Test was evenly-balanced on Sunday, with England at 366-6 reply to New Zealand's first innings of 390. Left hander Graham Thorpe was on 57 and Dominic Cork on 16 at the close.

However, the newly laid Eden Park strip — being used for the first time in this Test — has favoured the batsmen so far, a point best demonstrated by century-makers Stephen Fleming and Alec Stewart.

With two days left to play, it is difficult to imagine either side getting a result, but Gernon isn't giving up hope.

"We can definitely win it," he said Sunday. "If we can bowl them out in the first session tomorrow, set a target on the last day, it's definitely winnable."

"It's going to get progressively lower and be harder to score runs on the last day."

With the pitch offering only slow turn for the spinners and the odd low bounce, the admirable Stewart, his captain Mike Atherton and Thorpe cashed in Sunday.

Stewart started Sunday morning on 67 and hardly put a foot wrong on his way to an excellent 173.

He drove impressively and was quick to punish anything short.

He got to his 10th Test century — and his fourth against the Kiwis and — with a sharp single to mid-on shortly before lunch. The century came off 161 balls, with 14 fours and a six, and with Atherton had taken England to 193 for one at lunch.

Stewart did have one close shave on 104, when umpire Steve Dunne began to lift his finger on a confident leg before wicket appeal from medium-pace Justin Vaughan, then brought his hand down and behind his back.

Atherton was more patient, producing the occasional flowing drive and clipped stroke through mid-wicket as he found the form which has eluded him so far on the tour of Zimbabwe and New Zealand.

Early in the afternoon, Stewart, on 106, skied an attempted sweep at off-spinner Dipak Patel, but Adam Parore, racing back from square leg, was unable to grasp a difficult chance.

Two balls later Atherton's march towards an 11th Test century ended in unusual fashion.

He slammed a ball from Patel back down the outside of the pitch. Vaughan, fielding at a shortish mid-on position, palmed the ball up and Patel grabbed the rebound.

Atherton's 83 came off 213 balls, and included 11 boundaries, and with Stewart he had shared a 182-run stand in 377 balls.

Nasser Hussain didn't last long, being caught one handed at silly point by Fleming from the tidy Patel for eight, but Stewart and Thorpe ensured there would be no further alarms for England before tea.

Thorpe had completed his 20th Test half century, having batted 3-1/2 hours.

Stewart cruised past 150 and by tea had reached 165.

But with his sights on a first Test double century, Stewart fell to a smart, low return catch taken by fast-medium bowler Simon Doull.

He had batted just over six hours, faced 277 balls and hit 23 fours and one six.
