Wang made new Chinese envoy

Wang has been appointed new Chinese Ambassador to Bangladesh, a senior official of China's Embassy said yesterday, reports UNB.

He replaces Zhang Xujiang, who has already gone back home.

Wang, who is Director General of the South Asian desk of the foreign ministry of his country, is coming to Dhaka soon to join his new assignment.

Envoy to France presents credentials

Bangladesh ambassador designate to France Tufail K. Haider presented his credentials Tuesday to French President Jacques Chirac at the Elysee Palace in Paris, according to a message received here, reports BSS.

Foreign Minister of France, Herve De Charette and diplomatic advisor to the President of France, Jean David Levitte were present at the ceremony.

Earlier, the ambassador designate was presented with a guard of honour by a smartly turned-out contingent of the elite presidential guards.

The French President received the ambassador in a private audience. He praised the recent developments in Bangladesh both in political and economic fields.

Ambassador Haider thanked President Chirac for the consistent French support to Bangladesh, both moral and material, since the country's independence.
